

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 29, Number 283

Full Leased Wire Service of United Press Association

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1930

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

REPAIR STORM DAMAGE IN 9 MIDWEST STATES

RECONSTRUCTION WORK IS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

VOLUNTEER WORKERS CLEARING AWAY DEBRIS OF VIOLENT STORMS
SCORES OF FAMILIES BEGAN DIS-HEARTENING WORK RE-BUILDING HOMES

Chicago, May 3.—(U.P.)—Storm shattered sections of nine central states turned today to the task of reconstruction as volunteer workers cleared away debris left by the season's first onslaught of destructive, life-taking tornadoes and violent storms.

Scores of families, after a night in temporary tent shelters provided by relief organizations, began the disheartening work of rebuilding their ruined homes.

Red Cross and National Guard units engaged in relieving the suffering of the many injured and the hundreds made homeless in the series of cyclonic disturbances, reported a storm toll of 23 deaths and damage approximating $5,000,000.

A survey of the devastated areas showed that the towns of Tekamah, Neb., Norborne, Mo., Westby, Wis., and Russell, Ia., had suffered most.

At Tekamah last night both Red Cross and National Guard units were busy caring for those injured and the many left shelterless by the tornado that laid waste a large section of the town when it struck there Thursday evening in a wild course over northeastern Nebraska.

Tekamah's deaths numbered four and its losses were estimated at $150,000.

First aid crews established headquarters yesterday at Norborne, Mo., where five were killed by the twister that raged from northeastern Kansas over northwestern Missouri. Damage totaled $100,000.

Flattened farm buildings, uprooted trees and dead livestock were strewn over the countryside, rescue workers reported.

Westby, Wis., where a small boy was killed, the damage caused by the tornado that whirled across it was said to total $100,000.

A prospect of ruin and wreckage almost as dismal lay before rural inhabitants in other states of the midwest. Farm losses were reported to be heavy as the result of windstorms accompanied by lightning, hail and torrential downpours.

Tabulation of the deaths due to the tornadoes and storms showed five persons killed at Norborne, Mo.; four at Tekamah, Neb.; three at Lake City, Minn.; Duluth, 2; Antioch, Ill.; Kickapoo, Kas.; 2; and one each at Russell, Ia., Westby, Wis., Rockford, Ill., Lawton, N. D., and Galesburg, Ill.

SENATOR SCHALL FILES FOR NOMINATION TO U. S. SENATE

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—Senator Thomas D. Schall filed today for the republican nomination for the position he now holds in the United States senate.

He gave his home address as Excelsior.

The senator will be opposed for the republican nomination by Governor Theodore Christianson and Truman Pierson, Minneapolis, who has not yet filed with Mike Holm, secretary of state.

Other filings were Norman E. Peterson, Albert Lea, for judge, tenth judicial district, and Emil L. Regnier, Marshall, for state senator from the thirteenth district.

Joseph Poirier, assistant Hennepin county attorney and national chairman of the farmer-labor party, filed for congress from the fifth district on the farmer-labor ticket.

REGIONAL WORKHOUSE MAY BE ESTABLISHED

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—To relieve conditions in Minnesota jails where many prisoners have nothing to do, a proposal to establish regional workhouses will be made to the next state legislature by the Minnesota County Attorneys' association.

The resolution favoring establishment of the workhouses was passed late yesterday by a committee of the association. Citing determined effects of the enforced unemployment, the resolution provides that the state consider sending persons found guilty of misdemeanors and lesser felonies to the regional workhouses which would be established at key points throughout the state instead of to county jails.

HOOVER WILL DELAY INVESTIGATION OF BUSINESS DEPRESSION

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—President Hoover will delay appointment of his proposed commission to study the economic forces behind business booms and depressions until the present slight disorder has completely subsided and a proper perspective is afforded, it became known today in administration circles.

Taking Up Administrative Part of Tariff Bill

SHEEPSKIN FOLLOWS IN FOOTSTEPS OF THE PIGSKIN, HORSEHIDE

Minneapolis, May 3.—(U.P.)—The sheepskin is following in the footsteps of the pigskin and the horsehide at the University of Minnesota. Taking a hint from recent night football and baseball games, authorities will hold commencement exercises in the Memorial stadium on the evening of June 9 under the glare of powerful floodlights.

HOOVER BACKING LEGGE, BOARD IN THEIR FIGHT

PRESIDENT STANDS BEHIND
PLAN OF FARM RELIEF
PROGRAM

CONTROVERSY NOW RAGING
WITH U. S. CHAMBER
OF COMMERCE

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—President Hoover is standing behind the man he selected to carry out the administration's farm relief program, in the controversy between the Federal Farm board and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, it was indicated today.

Chairman Alexander Legge of the farm board will complete his first year of service on June 15, and has already been asked by Mr. Hoover to continue in office for at least another year. Legge has told the board he will remain until the board has established the farming industry on a sound cooperative basis.

Recent attacks on the board by the chamber and private grain interests have not altered the administration's policy of building up farm cooperatives and advancing government funds for their operation.

Presidential backing of Legge was strongly indicated several months ago when the chairman after a conference with Mr. Hoover, issued an appeal for the support of "conservative business interests" in the administration's farm relief program. Legge, who then was under attack by Julius Barnes, chairman of the chamber's directorate, conferred with Mr. Hoover to obtain definite assurances his policies met with approval.

New Metal Discovered, Lighter Than Aluminum and Stronger Than Steel

New York, May 3.—(U.P.)—A secret formula, conceived by a German scientist but developed posthumously by an American chemist, has led to the discovery of a new metal, lighter than aluminum and stronger than steel, which may be of inestimable value to the aviation, automobile and shipbuilding industries.

The metal, as yet unnamed, was announced today by the Drekolias International corporation which obtained the formula on the death of its discoverer. The process was turned over to Dr. John E. Jackson, noted industrial chemist, who found it an alloy of aluminum, zirconium, copper, iron and tin.

It was perfected primarily for use in another device, designed to prevent ships from sinking. Further tests proved to the satisfaction of the company, that it resisted corrosion from salt spray sufficiently for use in airplane floats.

Another use, according to Dr. Jackson, is in automobiles where it would lessen the weight of motors and thus increase mileage. Dr. Jackson is the discoverer of various processes for converting waste farm products, notably, cornstalks into paper.

MILWAUKEE ROAD TRYING OUT NEW TYPE LOCOMOTIVE

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—The second trial of the Milwaukee railroad's new type locomotive over the longest continuous passenger run on record will be made tomorrow, E. F. Bowman, general passenger agent, said today.

On the first trial between St. Paul and Harlowton, Mont., the engine arrived on time. Several trips will be made to determine the practicability of the plan, Bowman said.

The new locomotive is known as the mountain type. Experts will seek to discover whether this or the "Hudson" type is best for the long run.

BAD WEATHER BARS GOLDBOROUGH FLIGHT

Colton, Calif., May 3.—(U.P.)—Forced by bad weather to return to the airport here after taking off for Los Angeles at 9:15 a. m. today, Frank Goldborough, 19-year-old aviator, said he would try again this afternoon to make the last leg of his transcontinental junior record flight.

Spectacular Dry Raid in New York, Steamer Crowd Bidding Goodbye Searched for Liquor

EXECUTED WITH DRAMATIC RUSH LATE LAST NIGHT

JUST BEFORE PALATIAL LINER
BREMEN SAILED FOR EUROPE

FIRST TIME "HIP-SLAPPING" RE-SORTED TO SINCE INCIDENT OF 1928

New York, May 3.—(U.P.)—The third spectacular dry raid in New York within a week, executed with dramatic suddenness last night just before the palatial liner Bremen sailed for Europe, raised prohibition excitement today to the highest pitch it has reached here in two years.

A crowd of 7,000 visitors bidding bon voyage to friends and relatives were searched for concealed liquor as they stepped from the North German Lloyd liner to the pier, where squads of customs agents, many in plain clothes, awaited them.

It was the first time "hip-slapping" had been resorted to since the raid on the Ile de France in the spring of 1928—an incident which evoked an order from the treasury department discouraging such methods.

After the crowd had gone through the gates, agents reported they had found several pint flasks of liquor. It was seized as customs contraband, although those from whom it was taken protested they had carried it aboard the ship with them.

The raid at the pier followed closely upon two similar developments of the last few days which set precedents for stringent enforcement. The first of these was at the Hollywood restaurant, exactly a week ago, when for the first time night club patrons were arrested and charged with possession if they were found to be carrying flasks.

The second was at the New York Fraternity club this week. It was the first club to be invaded by the agents.

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—An immediate inquiry into reported "hip-slapping" by customs agents who visited the German liner Bremen in New York harbor last night and searched 7,000 persons, was begun by assistant Secretary of Treasury Seymour Lowman.

Lowman said newspaper reports indicated his recent order banning "hip-slapping" of tourists had been violated but he could not say definitely until he received a report from New York.

CONGRESS TODAY

Senate
In recess until Monday.
House
Votes on administration clauses in tariff bill.

Former War Secretary Ill With Pneumonia

An excellent closeup of Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War, who is confined to his bed with an attack of bronchial pneumonia. Mr. Baker's attendance at a recent Democratic rally is said to have brought on the complications.

(International Newsreel)

200 JAPANESE FISHERMEN LOSE LIVES IN STORM

Tokio, May 3.—(U.P.)—Approximately 200 Japanese fishermen apparently lost their lives in a storm in Aniva Bay, Saghalien Island, last night, dispatches received here today said.

Herring hauls valued at $2,000, 600 were lost when a number of fishing vessels went down.

Half the fishing tools or boats which did not sink were washed away, and the herring hauls of the entire fleet were lost.

The dispatches said 221 fishermen aboard 25 of the vessels were rescued.

FOUND DEAD WITH CRUCIFIX IN HANDS

Montpellier, France, May 3.—Father Saint-Laurent, 37, attached to the Maison Episcopale of Montreal, was found dead in his hotel room here last night with a crucifix in his hands. The priest apparently had suffered a heart attack while praying. Father Saint-Laurent was a member of a party of 15 Canadians enroute to the Eucharistic congress at Carthage.

NEW FIREPROOF BUILDINGS AT OHIO PRISON

CITIZENS AND OFFICIALS STUDY
TWO SEPARATE INVESTIGATIONS OF TRAGEDY

TWO REPORTS ON THE FIRE DIFFERED IN ONE VITAL RESPECT, ORIGIN OF BLAZE

Columbus, O., May 3.—(U.P.)—The demand for new fireproof buildings at Ohio state penitentiary became insistent today as citizens and officials studied reports based on two separate investigations of the tragedy.

Gov. Myers Y. Cooper, to whom the reports were submitted, members of the legislature and other officials expressed themselves in favor of an entirely fireproof prison. They supported several recommendations of the state board of inquiry, which conducted one investigation, and Chief Assistant Fire Marshal Edward H. Lee, who headed the other.

The two reports on the fire differed in one vital respect, the origin of the blaze. The board of inquiry ascribed it to defective wiring, while the fire marshal's office contended it was incendiary.

The testimony of prison guards that most of the 322 fatalities could have been averted with a pre-arranged plan of action was reflected in the state board's finding.

"The delay and confusion in meeting the emergency we find to be directly traceable to the lack of an organized plan," the report said, "and this failure directly contributed to the loss of life."

COMMENDED FOR AVERTING TRAGEDY

Fresno, Calif., May 3.—(U.P.)—Lieut. W. A. Maxwell and Staff Sgt. J. H. Arthur of March field today received the plaudits of army air officials for averting tragedy in an accident in which six enlisted men saved their lives by leaping from a disabled plane with parachutes. Lieut. Maxwell and Sgt. Arthur stayed with the crippled plane and succeeded in bringing it down in a vineyard in a semi-crash landing from which they miraculously escaped uninjured.

10 ARMY BOMBERS HOMEWARD BOUND

Kansas City, Mo., May 3.—(U.P.)—Homeward bound from California air maneuvers for Langley Field, Va., ten army bombing planes soared away from municipal airport shortly before 8 a. m. today on their way to St. Louis. The group, commanded by Maj. Hugh J. Kneer, arrived here late yesterday from Ft. Sill, Okla.

BRITISH STEAMER RAVEN SINKS AFTER COLLISION

Amsterdam, Holland, May 3.—(U.P.)—The British steamer Raven went down in the North Sea after a collision with the Greek steamer Cleopatra near the island of Borkum today, advices from the island of Terschelling said.

The Cleopatra saved the crew of the Raven. The Raven is a steamer of 1,337 tons.

TELEPHONE GIRL SHOT AND KILLED BY NEGRO BANDIT

ALICE RITA VOIGHT OF CHICAGO
SLAIN AS SHE SAT IN CAR
WITH SWEETHEART

FATAL SHOOTING OCCURRED IN FRONT OF GIRL'S HOME ON
INGLESIDE AVENUE

Chicago, May 3.—Alice Rita Voight, 29, telephone supervisor, died today as a result of a bullet wound inflicted by a negro bandit as she sat in an auto with her sweetheart, Policeman Herbert Last.

The fatal shooting occurred in front of the girl's home on Ingleside avenue while the couple sat in an auto discussing a proposed dance.

Told fellow officers that when the bandit poked his gun into the car he became excited and pulled the trigger. The bullet struck Miss Voight in the right temple.

Last said he shot at the negro three times as he dived into a basement window. He escaped by jumping through a rear window.

Morrow will be a
SENATE CANDIDATE IN THE PRIMARIES

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow announced today he would not accept appointment to the senate from New Jersey but would be a candidate in the republican primary next month.

Morrow said he would return to Mexico after the primary, June 17, to take up important pending matters.

Morrow refused to discuss prohibition or any other political matter but said he would announce his program in his opening campaign speech which probably will be delivered within 10 days.

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—Successful in her flight of mercy to bring a St. Louis salesman to the Twin Cities so that he could catch a fast train to go to the bedside of his sick mother, Mrs. Florence Klingensmith, Fargo, holder of the women's world loop-the-loop record, rested here today.

Mrs. Klingensmith brought John Wilkerson here on his hurried trip to his mother's bedside in St. Louis. The plane landed at Wold-Chamberlain field at 7:15 p. m. last night. The pair had left Fargo Friday afternoon.

Student Pilot is Fatally Injured in Plane Crash

Madison, Wis., May 3.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Carl F. Naff, student pilot and mother of a three-year-old child, was injured, probably fatally today, when the airplane she was attempting to land crashed at the Madison airport.

FOREIGN FLASHES

Madrid, May 3.—(U.P.)—Several persons were injured today during student demonstrations in connection with the anti-monarchical campaign of Miguel Unamuno, new returned political exile.

The injured included Julian Reina and Aurelio Gonzalez, students; Prof. Candido Bolivar, Corporal Benedicto Nunes and a woman passenger on a street car.

Paris, May 3.—(U.P.)—The Soviet embassy denied emphatically today that it was in any way connected with communist activity in the United States as described by Grover Whalen, New York police commissioner.

Calcutta, India, May 3.—(U.P.)—Police charged a crowd of independence volunteers several times today, swinging their batons and flits to force the demonstrators to scatter.

The crowd, mostly students, was attempting to assemble for a meeting at which V. I. Patel was scheduled to speak.

Police also dispersed a crowd milling around Howard station here, where Patel arrived.

All processions and meetings have been prohibited.

"FIGHTING RATES" NOW SEEM TO BE DISPOSED OF

FARM EXPORT DEBENTURE
BOUNTY AND FLEXIBLE
CLAUSE CONSIDERED

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS IN DESPERATE FIGHT TO HAVE
PARKER CONFIRMED

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—Having registered its will on the last of the "fighting rates" the house today turned to administrative clauses in the tariff bill of 1930.

No such revolt was anticipated as that which overrode the regular Republicans yesterday when Insurgent Republicans joined with Democrats in a temporary coalition to adopt the Senate rate of two cents on sugar and to place lumber and shingles on the free list.

The farm export debenture bounty and the flexible clause were the chief items up for individual votes and the house, having expressed definite views on both in the past, was expected to accede again to its leaders' dictates.

Chairman Hawley of the ways and means committee, who led a futile fight for compromise rates of 2.2 cents on sugar and 75 cents on lumber yesterday, said last night he would introduce motions today for elimination of the debenture clause and insistence on the flexible provisions.

In the past, the house has expressed itself as opposed to the debenture, but favorable toward the flexible provisions of the present tariff law, which enabled the president to raise or lower tariffs within certain limits.

When the farm marketing act was before congress, the house forced the senate to eliminate the debenture clause from the measure. The present tariff bill, as passed by the house some months ago retained the flexible provisions of the existing tariff law with minor modifications. Displeasure was expressed by house leaders when the senate struck these provisions from the bill. Hence, they were expected to welcome the opportunity to demand its return.

Behind the scenes, administration leaders were making their last desperate fight today for confirmation of Judge John J. Parker as an associate justice of the supreme court.

The senate was not in session, having recessed until Monday. The outcome of the Parker fight will depend upon how many votes Republican leaders are able to muster during the week-end. Half a dozen votes still are doubtful. They all are needed to confirm the nominee.

Parker's opponents were confident today of defeating him in spite of the breathing spell arranged by his supporters. They had enough votes to beat him when the senate recessed yesterday, they said, and they believed the only person who can change the lineup is President Hoover. He can only do it, they added, by exerting great pressure.

No one was willing to predict today when the final vote on Parker will be taken. Although the debate has lasted a week already, it appeared likely that another two or three days will be consumed.

The administration's attitude toward prohibition will not be clarified further until the final report of the law enforcement commission is made, probably next December, responsible authorities acquainted with President Hoover's views said today.

By that time the congressional elections will be over, and definite information will have been obtained to uphold or refute the claims of "wets" that there has been a change of public sentiment.

Then, also, the Wickersham commission will have completed the most intensive study ever made of any modern issue in this country and full recommendations as to the wisdom of the prohibition policy can safely be made. Mr. Hoover does not have a preference for a report favoring either the wet or dry causes his friends declare.

These authoritative statements of the executive's views are regarded with great interest here because of the recent correspondence of William H. Stayton, head of the association against the prohibition amendment, produced by the senate lobby committee. These letters developed the big question: "Is Hoover wet or dry?"

Stayton in his correspondence labeled the president "a wet at heart," or at least not in sympathy with prohibition. The wet leader charged that the chief executive with six members of his cabinet, believed "prohibition is a failure."

AL CAPONE BACK IN ISLAND HOME

Miami Beach, Fla., May 3.—(U.P.)—After a trip to Havana, the elusive Al Capone was back at his island home here today, making the return trip by airplane—the same way he went to Havana. He had been reported en route to New York by steamer.

As the only official of the prison whom they would trust, members of the "passive resistance" group among inmates of Ohio State Prison hold a parley with Deputy Warden Woodward (right). Since the ghastly disaster in which 320 lost their lives in the flames and smoke, smoldering defiance among the prisoners has caused considerable uneasiness among the authorities. The day after the holocaust, with its huge human toll, inmates broke into a concerted shout that swept from one end of the prison to the other, demanding that unless they were released from their cages they would "get" every one of the officials. The prisoners, still in complete control of the inside of the penitentiary, are ruled by a self-appointed "Committee of Forty."

(International Newsreel)

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 29, Number 283

Full Leased Wire Service of United Press Association

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1930

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

REPAIR STORM DAMAGE IN 9 MIDWEST STATES

RECONSTRUCTION WORK IS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

VOLUNTEER WORKERS CLEAR-ING AWAY DEBRIS OF VIO-LENT STORMS

SCORES OF FAMILIES BEGAN DIS-HEARTENING WORK RE-BUILDING HOMES

Chicago, May 3.—(U.P.)—Storm shattered sections of nine central states turned today to the task of reconstruction as volunteer workers cleared away debris left by the season's first onslaught of destructive, life-taking tornadoes and violent storms.

Scores of families, after a night in temporary tent shelters provided by relief organizations, began the disheartening work of rebuilding their ruined homes.

Red Cross and National Guard units engaged in relieving the suffering of the many injured and the hundreds made homeless in the series of cyclonic disturbances, reported a storm toll of 23 deaths and damage approximating $5,000,000.

A survey of the devastated areas showed that the towns of Tekamah, Neb., Norborne, Mo., Westby, Wis., and Russell, Ia., had suffered most.

At Tekamah last night both Red Cross and National Guard units were busy caring for those injured and the many left homeless by the tornado that laid waste a large section of the town when it struck there Thursday evening in a wild course over northeastern Nebraska.

Tekamah's deaths numbered four and its losses were estimated at $150,000.

First aid crews established headquarters yesterday at Norborne, Mo., where five were killed by the twister that raged from northeastern Kansas over northwestern Missouri. Damage totaled $100,000.

Flattened farm buildings, uprooted trees and dead livestock were strewn over the countryside, rescue workers reported.

Westby, Wis., where a small boy was killed, the damage caused by the tornado that whirled across it was said to total $100,000.

A prospect of ruin and wreckage almost as dismal lay before rural inhabitants in other states of the midwest. Farm losses were reported to be heavy as the result of windstorms accompanied by lightning, hail and torrential downpours.

Tallying of the deaths due to the tornadoes and storms showed five persons killed at Norborne, Mo.; four at Tekamah, Neb.; three at Lake City, Minn.; Duluth, 2; Antioch, Ill.; 2; Kickapoo, Kas.; 2; and one each at Russell, Ia., Westby, Wis., Rockford, Ill., Lawton, N. D., and Galesburg, Ill.

SENATOR SCHALL FILES FOR NOMINATION TO U. S. SENATE

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—Senator Thomas D. Schall filed today for the republican nomination for the position he now holds in the United States senate.

He gave his home address as Excelsior.

The senator will be opposed for the republican nomination by Governor Theodore Christianson and Truman Pierson, Minneapolis, who has not yet filed with Mike Holm, secretary of state.

Other filings were Norman E. Peterson, Albert Lea, for judge, tenth judicial district, and Emil L. Regnier, Marshall, for state senator from the thirteenth district.

Joseph Pierson, assistant Hennepin county attorney and national chairman of the farmer-labor party, filed for congress from the fifth district on the farmer-labor ticket.

REGIONAL WORKHOUSE MAY BE ESTABLISHED

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—To relieve conditions in Minnesota jails where many prisoners have nothing to do, a proposal to establish regional workhouses will be made to the next state legislature by the Minnesota County Attorneys' association.

The resolution favoring establishment of the workhouses was passed late yesterday by a committee of the association. Citing determined effects of the enforced unemployment, the resolution provides that the state consider sending persons found guilty of misdemeanors and lesser felonies to the regional workhouses which would be established at key points throughout the state instead of to county jails.

HOOVER WILL DELAY INVESTIGATION OF BUSINESS DEPRESSION

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—President Hoover will delay appointment of his proposed commission to study the economic forces behind business depression and depressions until the present slight depression has completely subsided and a proper perspective is afforded, it became known today in administration circles.

Taking Up Administrative Part of Tariff Bill

SHEEPSKIN FOLLOWS IN FOOTSTEPS OF THE PIGSKIN, HORSEHIDE

Minneapolis, May 3.—(U.P.)—The sheepskin is following in the footsteps of the pigskin and the horsehide at the University of Minnesota. Taking a hint from recent night football and baseball games, authorities will hold commencement exercises in the Memorial stadium on the evening of June 9 under the glare of powerful floodlights.

HOOVER BACKING LEGGE, BOARD IN THEIR FIGHT

PRESIDENT STANDS BEHIND
PLAN OF FARM RELIEF
PROGRAM

CONTROVERSY NOW RAGING
WITH U. S. CHAMBER
OF COMMERCE

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—President Hoover is standing behind the man he selected to carry out the administration's farm relief program, in the controversy between the Federal Farm board and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, it was indicated today.

Chairman Alexander Legge of the farm board will complete his first year of service on June 15, and has already been asked by Mr. Hoover to continue in office for at least another year. Legge has told the president he will remain until the board has established the farming industry on a sound cooperative basis.

Recent attacks on the board by the chamber and private grain interests have not altered the administration's policy of building up farm co-operatives and advancing government funds for their operation.

Presidential backing of Legge was strongly indicated several months ago when the chairman after a conference with Mr. Hoover, issued an appeal for the support of "conservative business interests" in the administration's farm relief program. Legge, who then was under attack by Julius Barnes, chairman of the chamber's directorate, conferred with Mr. Hoover to obtain definite assurances his policies met with approval.

New Metal Discovered, Lighter Than Aluminum and Stronger Than Steel

New York, May 3.—(U.P.)—A secret formula, conceived by a German scientist but developed posthumously by an American chemist, has led to the discovery of a new metal, lighter than aluminum and stronger than steel, which may be of inestimable value to the aviation, automobile and shipbuilding industries.

The metal, as yet unnamed, was announced today by the Drekolias International corporation which obtained the formula on the death of its discoverer. The process was turned over to Dr. John E. Jackson, noted industrial chemist, who found it an alloy of aluminum, zirconium, copper, iron and tin.

It was perfected primarily for use in another device, designed to prevent ships from sinking. Further tests proved, to the satisfaction of the company, that it resisted corrosion from salt spray sufficiently for use in airplane floats.

Another use, according to Dr. Jackson, is in automobiles where it would lessen the weight of motors and thus increase mileage. Dr. Jackson is the discoverer of various processes for converting waste farm products, notably, cornstalks into paper.

MILWAUKEE ROAD TRYING OUT NEW TYPE LOCOMOTIVE

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—The second trial of the Milwaukee railroad's new type locomotive over the longest continuous passenger run on record will be made tomorrow, E. F. Bowman, general passenger agent, said today.

On the first trial between St. Paul and Harlowton, Mont., the engine arrived on time. Several trips will be made to determine the practicability of the plan, Bowman said.

The new locomotive is known as the mountain type. Experts will seek to discover whether this or the "Hudson" type is best for the long run.

BAD WEATHER BARS GOLDBOROUGH FLIGHT

Colton, Calif., May 3.—(U.P.)—Forced by bad weather to return to the airport here after taking off for Los Angeles at 9:15 a. m. today, Frank Goldborough, 19-year-old aviator, said he would try again this afternoon to make the last leg of his trans-continental junior record flight.

Spectacular Dry Raid in New York, Steamer Crowd Bidding Goodbye Searched for Liquor

EXECUTED WITH DRAMATIC RUSH LATE LAST NIGHT

JUST BEFORE PALATIAL LINER
BREMEN SAILED FOR EUROPE

FIRST TIME "HIP-SLAPPING" RE-SORTED TO SINCE INCI-DENT OF 1928

New York, May 3.—(U.P.)—The third spectacular dry raid in New York within a week, executed with dramatic suddenness last night just before the palatial liner Bremen sailed for Europe, raised prohibition excitement today to the highest pitch it has reached here in two years.

A crowd of 7,000 visitors bidding bon voyage to friends and relatives were searched for concealed liquor as they stepped from the North German Lloyd liner to the pier, where squads of customs agents, many in plain clothes, awaited them.

It was the first time "hip-slapping" had been resorted to since the raid on the Ide de France in the spring of 1928—an incident which evoked an order from the treasury department discouraging such methods.

After the crowd had gone through the gates, agents reported they had found several pint flasks of liquor. It was seized as customs contraband, although those from whom it was taken protested they had carried it aboard the ship with them.

The raid at the pier followed closely upon two similar developments of the last few days which set precedents for stringent enforcement. The first of these was at the Hollywood restaurant, exactly a week ago, when for the first time night club patrons were arrested and charged with possession if they were found to be carrying flasks.

The second was at the New York Fraternity club this week. It was the first club to be invaded by the agents.

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—An immediate inquiry into reported "hip-slapping" by customs agents who visited the German liner Bremen in New York harbor last night and searched 7,000 persons, was begun by assistant Secretary of Treasury Seymour Lowman.

Lowman said newspaper reports indicated his recent order banning "hip-slapping" of tourists had been violated but he could not say definitely until he received a report from New York.

CONGRESS TODAY

Senate
In recess until Monday.
House
Votes on administration clauses in tariff bill.

Former War Secretary Ill With Pneumonia

An excellent closeup of Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War, who is confined to his bed with an attack of bronchial pneumonia. Mr. Baker's attendance at a recent Democratic rally is said to have brought on the complications.

(International Newsreel)

200 JAPANESE FISHERMEN LOSE LIVES IN STORM

Tokio, May 3.—(U.P.)—Approximately 200 Japanese fishermen apparently lost their lives in a storm in Aniba Bay, Saghalien Island, last night, dispatches received here today said.

Herring hauls valued at $2,000, were lost when a number of fishing vessels went down.

Half the fishing tools or boats which did not sink were washed away, and the herring hauls of the entire fleet were lost.

The dispatches said 221 fishermen aboard 25 of the vessels were rescued.

FOUND DEAD WITH CRUCIFIX IN HANDS

Montpellier, France, May 3.—Father Saint-Laurent, 37, attached to the Maison Episcopal of Montreal, was found dead in his hotel room here last night with a crucifix in his hands. The priest apparently had suffered a heart attack while praying. Father Saint-Laurent was a member of a party of 15 Canadians enroute to the Eucharistic congress at Carthage.

NEW FIREPROOF BUILDINGS AT OHIO PRISON

CITIZENS AND OFFICIALS STUDY
TWO SEPARATE INVESTIGA-TIONS OF TRAGEDY

TWO REPORTS ON THE FIRE DIS-
FERED IN ONE VITAL RESPECT,
ORIGIN OF BLAZE

Columbus, O., May 3.—(U.P.)—The demand for new fireproof buildings at Ohio state penitentiary became insistent today as citizens and officials studied reports based on two separate investigations of the tragedy.

Gov. Myers Y. Cooper, to whom the reports were submitted, members of the legislature and other officials expressed themselves in favor of an entirely fireproof prison. They supported several recommendations of the state board of inquiry, which conducted one investigation, and Chief Assistant Fire Marshal Edward H. Lee, who headed the other.

The two reports on the fire differed in one vital respect, the origin of the blaze. The board of inquiry ascribed it to defective wiring, while the fire marshal's office contended it was incendiary.

The testimony of prison guards that most of the 322 fatalities could have been averted with a pre-arranged plan of action was reflected in the state board's finding.

"The delay and confusion in meeting the emergency we find to be directly traceable to the lack of an organized plan," the report said, "and this failure directly contributed to the loss of life."

COMMENDED FOR AVERTING TRAGEDY

Fresno, Calif., May 3.—(U.P.)—Lieut. W. A. Maxwell and Staff Sgt. J. H. Arthur of March field today received the plaudits of army air officials for averting tragedy in an accident in which six enlisted men saved their lives by leaping from a disabled plane with parachutes. Lieut. Maxwell and Sgt. Arthur stayed with the crippled plane and succeeded in bringing it down in a vineyard in a semi-crash landing from which they miraculously escaped uninjured.

10 ARMY BOMBERS HOMEWARD BOUND

Kansas City, Mo., May 3.—(U.P.)—Homeward bound from California air maneuvers for Langley Field, Va., ten army bombing planes soared away from municipal airport shortly before 8 a. m. today on their way to St. Louis. The group, commanded by Maj. Hugh J. Kneer, arrived here late yesterday from Ft. Sill, Okla.

BRITISH STEAMER RAVEN SINKS AFTER COLLISION

Amsterdam, Holland, May 3.—(U.P.)—The British steamer Raven went down in the North Sea after a collision with the Greek steamer Cleopatra near the island of Borkum today, advices from the island of Terschelling said.

The Cleopatra saved the crew of the Raven. The Raven is a steamer of 1,337 tons.

TELEPHONE GIRL SHOT AND KILLED BY NEGRO BANDIT

ALICE RITA VOIGHT OF CHICAGO
SLAIN AS SHE SAT IN CAR
WITH SWEETHEART

FATAL SHOOTING OCCURRED IN FRONT OF GIRL'S HOME ON
INGLESIDE AVENUE

Chicago, May 3.—Alice Rita Voight, 29, telephone supervisor, died today as a result of a bullet wound inflicted by a negro bandit as she sat in an auto with her sweetheart, Policeman Herbert Last.

The fatal shooting occurred in front of the girl's home on Ingleside avenue while the couple sat in an auto discussing a proposed dance.

Last was held for questioning. He told fellow officers that when the bandit poked his gun into the car he became excited and pulled the trigger. The bullet struck Miss Voight in the right temple.

Last said he shot at the negro three times as he dived into a basement window. He escaped by jumping through a rear window.

MORROW WILL BE A SENATE CANDIDATE IN THE PRIMARIES

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow announced today he would not accept appointment to the senate from New Jersey but would be a candidate in the republican primary next month.

Morrow said he would return to Mexico after the primary, June 17, to take up important pending matters.

Morrow refused to discuss prohibition or any other political matter but said he would announce his program in his opening campaign speech which probably will be delivered within 10 days.

SUCCESSFUL IN FLIGHT OF MERCY

St. Paul, May 3.—(U.P.)—Successful in her flight of mercy to bring a St. Louis salesman to the Twin Cities so that he could catch a fast train to go to the bedside of his sick mother, Mrs. Florence Klingensmith, Fargo, holder of the women's world loop-the-loop record, rested here today.

Mrs. Klingensmith brought John Wilkerson here on his hurried trip to his mother's bedside in St. Louis. The plane landed at Wold-Chamberlain field at 7:15 p. m. last night. The pair had left Fargo Friday afternoon.

Student Pilot is Fatally Injured in Plane Crash

Madison, Wis., May 3.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Carl F. Naffz, student pilot and mother of a three-year-old child, was injured, probably fatally today, when the airplane she was attempting to land crashed at the Madison airport.

FOREIGN FLASHES

Madrid, May 3.—(U.P.)—Several persons were injured today during student demonstrations in connection with the anti-monarchical campaign of Miguel Unamuno, new-elected political exile.

The injured included Julian Reina and Aurelio Gonzalez, students; Prof. Candido Bolivar, Corporal Benedicto Nunes and a woman passenger on a street car.

Paris, May 3.—(U.P.)—The Soviet embassy denied emphatically today that it was in any way connected with communist activity in the United States as described by Grover Whalen, New York police commissioner.

Calcutta, India, May 3.—(U.P.)—Police charged a crowd of independence volunteers several times today, swinging their batons and fists to force the demonstrators to scatter.

The crowd, mostly students, was attempting to assemble for a meeting at which V. I. Patel was scheduled to speak.

Police also dispersed a crowd milling around Howard station here, where Patel arrived.

All processions and meetings have been prohibited.

"FIGHTING RATES" NOW SEEM TO BE DISPOSED OF

FARM EXPORT DEBENTURE
BOUNTY AND FLEXIBLE
CLAUSE CONSIDERED

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS IN DESPERATE FIGHT TO HAVE
PARKER CONFIRMED

Washington, May 3.—(U.P.)—Having registered its will on the last of the "fighting rates" the house today turned to administrative clauses in the tariff bill of 1930.

No such revolt was anticipated as that which overrode the regular Republicans yesterday when Insurgent Republicans joined with Democrats in a temporary coalition to adopt the Senate rate of two cents on sugar and to place lumber and shingles on the free list.

The farm export debenture bounty and the flexible clause were the chief items up for individual votes and the house, having expressed definite views on both in the past, was expected to acceded again to its leaders' dictates.

Chairman Hawley of the ways and means committee, who led a futile fight for compromise rates of 2.2 cents on sugar and 75 cents on lumber yesterday, said last night he would introduce motions today for elimination of the debenture clause and insistence on the flexible provisions.

In the past, the house has expressed itself as opposed to the debenture, but favorable toward the flexible provisions of the present tariff law, which enabled the president to raise or lower tariffs within certain limits.

When the farm marketing act was before congress, the house forced the senate to eliminate the debenture clause from the measure. The present tariff bill, as passed by the house some months ago retained the flexible provisions of the existing tariff law with minor modifications. Displeasure was expressed by house leaders when the senate struck these provisions from the bill. Hence, they were expected to welcome the opportunity to demand its return.

Behind the scenes, administration leaders were making their last desperate fight today for confirmation of Judge John J. Parker as an associate justice of the supreme court.

The senate was not in session, having recessed until Monday.

The outcome of the Parker fight will depend upon how many votes Republican leaders are able to muster during the week-end. Half a dozen votes still are doubtful. They all are needed to confirm the nominee.

Parker's opponents were confident today of defeating him in spite of the breathing spell arranged by his supporters. They had enough votes to beat him when the senate recessed yesterday, they said, and they believed the only person who can change the lineup is President Hoover. He can only do it, they added, by exerting great pressure.

No one was willing to predict today when the final vote on Parker will be taken. Although the debate has lasted a week already, it appeared likely that another two or three days will be consumed.

The administration's attitude toward prohibition will not be clarified further until the final report of the law enforcement commission is made, probably next December, responsible authorities acquainted with President Hoover's views said today.

By that time the congressional elections will be over, and definite information will have been obtained to uphold or refute the claims of "wets" that there has been a change of public sentiment.

Then, also, the Wickersham commission will have completed the most intensive study ever made of any modern issue in this country and full recommendations as to the wisdom of the prohibition policy can safely be made. Mr. Hoover does not have a preference for a report favoring either the wet or dry causes his friends declare.

These authoritative statements of the executive's views are regarded with great interest here because of the recent correspondence of William H. Stayton, head of the association against the prohibition amendment, produced by the senate lobby committee. These letters developed the big question: "Is Hoover wet or dry?"

Stayton in his correspondence labeled the president "a wet at heart," or at least not in sympathy with prohibition. The wet leader charged that the chief executive with six members of his cabinet, believed "prohibition is a failure."

AL CAPONE BACK IN ISLAND HOME

Miami Beach, Fla., May 3.—(U.P.)—After a trip to Havana, the elusive Al Capone was back at his island home here today, making the return trip by airplane—the same way he went to Havana. He had been reported en route to New York by steamer.

'Passive Resistance' Group Talks to Official

As the only official of the prison whom they would trust, members of the "passive resistance" group among inmates of Ohio State Prison hold a parley with Deputy Warden Woodward (right). Since the ghastly disaster in which 320 lost their lives in the flames and smoke, smouldering defiance among the prisoners has caused considerable uneasiness among the authorities. The day after the holocaust, with its huge human toll, inmates broke into a concerted shout that swept from one end of the prison to the other, demanding that unless they were released from their cages they would "get" every one of the officials. The prisoners, still in complete control of the inside of the penitentiary, are ruled by a self-appointed "Committee of Forty."

(International Newsreel)

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

Mrs. Wm. Christensen and son Kenneth are spending the day in Duluth.

George Ridley of Ironton was a business visitor in Brainerd yesterday.

J. I. Clawson of Crow Wing was a Brainerd business visitor this morning.

Norman Austin of Fort Ripley was a Brainerd shopper yesterday afternoon.

William Coyne left for Hibbing last evening, called there by the death of his sister.

Henry Dieken of Detroit, Mich., is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Scott.

Mrs. C. E. Dandaneil of Hubert called on friends yesterday afternoon in Brainerd.

W. D. Stewart of St. Paul is spending the week end at his lake cottage on Gull Lake.

NOTICE—Regular meeting E. M. B. A. Brainerd club at Moose hall Saturday night, May 3. J. E. Fournier, secretary. 28212

Alfred Anderson former Brainerd resident is seriously ill at the N. P. hospital, St. Paul.

American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary meets in Iron Exchange hall Monday, May 5, at 8 P. M. 11

F. A. Farrar and County Attorney Arthur Sullivan left today for Walker on a business trip.

Otto Treitler of Dykeman motored to the city this morning to spend the day here on business.

Henry Hamdorf, chairman of the town board of Deerwood, transacted business in the city today.

ELKS NOTICE

The funeral of Past Exalted Ruler Fred Allison will be held at the Elks' Temple at 2 p. m. Monday. All Elks are requested to be in attendance.

G. S. SWANSON, Exalted Ruler.

Oscar Lundquist was fined $10 in municipal court this morning on his plea of guilty to intoxication.

Twins, a boy and a girl, were born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Koeppl, 409 South Ninth street.

Miss Evelyn Swanson of the Fashionette will leave this evening for the Twin Cities on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McMillan and family of St. Paul are spending the week end at their cottage on Big Pelican lake.

Buy Seed Corn at Senn & Cain. 2831fe01

Miss Margaret Tollefson of St. Paul is spending the week end in the city. She is calling on a number of her old friends.

Dance at Little Pine Saturday night, May 3. Jack Kane's Orchestra. 28212

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hoff of Pequot spent yesterday in the city visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

County Agent E. G. Roth visited the 4-H club meeting at Emily last evening and spoke on "Cooperation of Parents with 4-H clubs."

Miss Florence Larson, Mrs. Ed. Thompson and Mrs. Ed. Laughton, all of Oak Lawn, motored to Brainerd today for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Henderson of Nisswa motored to Brainerd this morning, spending the day here shopping and on business.

Old and New Time Dance at Puelz's Barn Saturday night. Good music. 28212

Edith Erickson and Hilding Erickson, 1112 Quince street, motored to the Twin Cities today where Mr. Erickson will conduct business.

ODD FELLOWS—You are requested to meet at Odd Fellows hall 1:30 P. M. Monday to attend the funeral of our late Bro. Fred Allison. By order of N. E. 1tp

Dr. and Mrs. B. I. Derauf arrived this afternoon from St. Paul for a visit with friends in the city. They are former Brainerd residents.

Fred Johnson, club agent for Crow Wing county assisted in the organization.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
"I want to be a happy wife and mother, and a light unto my path."—Yvonne (19: 14b)

The Perpetuity of Love—And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.—1 Cor. 13:13.

Prayer:
May we daily partake more and more of that love which is God and abideth forever.

The Weather

WEEKLY WEATHER
Weather outlook for the period May 5-10, 1930:

Region of the Great Lakes—Frequent showers likely, temperature changes numerous, but probably no abnormally high or low readings.

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, and the northern and central great plains—Rather frequent precipitation; no marked extremes of temperature likely.

Minnesota—Probably showers or thunderstorms beginning tonight or Sunday; slightly warmer tonight in east portion; somewhat cooler Sunday in west portion.

May 2.—High 68, low 43. In evening 64. Northwest wind. Clear. Trace rain in night.

May 3.—Minimum last night 43. At 8 A. M. 64. Southeast wind. Clear.

tion of a kittenball team for the Nokay Lake 4-H club last evening.

Miss Dorothy Quinlen of Minneapolis is spending a couple days in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Quinlen, 712 North Sixth street.

FOR SALE—Seed Corn at Senn & Cain. 2831fe0d

Mrs. John Philstrom returned to her home in Minneapolis after spending a few days in Brainerd visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

Ed. Moerke and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Davidson of Dykeman were Brainerd visitors yesterday afternoon. They called on friends and also transacted business.

Mrs. H. J. Brumberg of South Long Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rognaldson and A. T. Peterson, all of South Long Lake, were Brainerd shoppers and visitors today.

Miss Frances Taylor and her brother Ben Taylor arrived last evening from Soper, Okla., to spend the summer here, with their brothers Jim Taylor and Jess Taylor.

I have taken over the agency, from G. A. Soderlund, to sell Watkins Products in Brainerd. Prompt, courteous treatment. Your patronage appreciated. Phone 335-R. Carrie M. Taylor. 410 South 11th street. 1t

Gerald Dunn, Franklin Ebner and Archer Crandall motored to St. Cloud this afternoon. They will attend the St. Cloud Teachers college Junior-Senior ball this evening.

Mrs. Edward Crust, Jr., and daughter Margaret Mary left today for McGregor to spend the day with Mrs. Crust's sister Miss Agnes Templeton. Miss Templeton teaches at McGregor.

The old time dance to have been held at Birchdale Pavilion June 9 by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has been cancelled until further notice. 28312

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dougherty announce the birth of a granddaughter at Bernicia, Calif. The child was born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dougherty. This is the second child in the family.

Miss Bessie Smith arrived today from Mission to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Northeast Brainerd. Miss Smith has just completed her school term for the year.

Mrs. Lloyd Larson and children of Makoda are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Morrison, 623 South Seventh street. Mr. Larson will motor to Brainerd tomorrow and Mrs. Larson and children will return with him tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Fred Bispham has returned from Bemidji where she spent a short time visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Moody and family. She also arranged for a house there as they expect to move to Bemidji in the near future. The home they have rented is at 1323 Minnesota avenue.

XYZ SEWING CLUB

Met Friday Afternoon at the Home of Mrs. Chester Thabes in West Brainerd

The regular meeting of the XYZ Sewing club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chester Thabes in West Brainerd. Nine members were present, one absent and two visitors.

After the busy hour, various reports were discussed and plans made for a good time to be had at the next meeting, June 6. This will be in celebration of the third anniversary of the club.

Following the discussions, a dinner consisting of veal stew on flaky baking powder biscuits, vegetable salad with home made rolls, cake and coffee was served by the hostess. At the close of the dinner a cake beautifully decorated with candles was brought in as a surprise on one of the members of the club, Mrs. Grace Fite, it being her birthday anniversary. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially.

Armstrong-Woodhead

Mrs. Evelyn Woodhead and Corwin C. Armstrong, advertising manager of the Minneapolis Tribune, were married Thursday, May 1 at Minneapolis. They are spending the week end at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wieland at Hubert.

Methodist Organizations

The Young People's department of the Methodist Bible school and the Epworth League will each hold their separate business sessions at the church Monday evening at 7:45 p. m. The Epworth League will hold its annual election of officers. Following the business sessions, they will hold a joint social time.

ONE-THIRD OF POPULATION LIVING UNDER NEW FLAGS

Fifteen New Emblems Permanently Adopted by Nations Since the World War.

New York.—How many of the world's national flags could you identify if they were spread before you today? Probably not as many as you suppose, for more than one-third of the world's population is living today under emblems that were nonexistent at the end of the World war.

This interesting fact, significant of the political changes that have swept around the globe in the past few years, is pointed out in the Review of Reviews.

Fifteen nations, established on new and apparently enduring foundations, are flying new flags. But besides these there are new flags over such states as Palestine and Danzig, whose political futures are not yet secure; in India Ghandi's Nationalists are assembling under a new revolutionary tricolor, and the Vatican state now exists under the Papal flag with its newly recognized political status.

The 15 flags permanently adopted since the war are those of China, Russia, Germany, Poland, Egypt, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Union of South Africa, Finland, Irish Free state, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Palestine and Iceland.

The German flag of today, three horizontal bars of black, red and gold, is not a new conception. It appeared briefly during the efforts to unite the German states in 1813 and 1848, but was suppressed by the dynastic princes. The Russian Soviet flag derives from the Jacobin flag of the French revolution. It is blood red with a design of hammer, sickle and star in yellow, or the letters RSFSR, standing for Russian Socialist Federation of Soviet Republics, in white. China's new emblem is red with a blue field in the upper left corner, on which is a white sun. The new Polish flag is divided into horizontal halves, the upper of white and the lower red. On the white bar is the red shield bearing the traditional Polish eagle.

Czechoslovakia's flag indicates that nation's gratitude to Woodrow Wilson for his part in obtaining its independent status, notes the Review of Reviews article. It is of three parts, red, white and blue.

Boston Blind Teach Others in Own School

Boston.—Boston's trade school in which the blind are taught by the blind has just observed its first birthday.

Established for experimental purposes by the Massachusetts Association for Promoting the Interests of the Adult Blind, the institution trained 15 students at an expense of less than $2,000 during the last year.

Among the courses open to students are textile, basket, and mat weaving, making fancy brushes, canning, rush seating of antique furniture, and restringing of tennis racquets. It is planned to add woodworking and wrought iron art work to the curriculum as soon as the necessary equipment is available.

Emil Schoener of Dedham, blinded by an accidental shooting when he was five years old, is dean and instructor of the school. The more advanced pupils teach beginners.

One young man already has been graduated as an instructor of the blind. Another has secured a position in a shop. Still another has established a basket making establishment of his own.

American Melting Pot

Upsets Beauty Standards

Chicago.—Artists of the Old World have deserted classic Venus to seek in Columbia, modern model, the ideally proportioned woman.

"The American melting pot has upset standards of beauty, fixed in marble by the sculptor's chisel, that have endured through 23 centuries," Mme. Helena Rubinstein of Paris and London, who has spent 30 years in the study of feminine beauty in all climates and countries, said at a meeting of a society of artists here.

"Race fusion in the United States has produced a new physical type, entirely at variance with the sculptured Venus. America, land of financial opportunity, is also the land where women have the best opportunity to preserve their beauty, through scientific care."

Charles "Buddy" Rogers, whose first great success on the screen was scored in that mighty epic of the air, "Wings," is again cast in a similar role in Paramount's all-talking romantic-drama of the air, "Young Eagles," coming to the Paramount theatre Sunday only. A thrilling picture whose throbbing action matches the superb sweep of "Wings," it is further and materially enhanced by that human quality which only dialogue can give to character. For rarely on the audible screen has such nerve-tugging action been so successfully blended with the delightful romance, intrigue and adventure of its compelling and fascinating story.

Buddy Rogers plays the role of a daring young American aviator. In love with a beautiful American girl living in Paris, he dreams only of the day when he can get a short leave to visit her. But his dreams are rudely shattered when the Germans, headed by the famous Grey Eagle, sweep over the American sector. In a thrilling air battle with the Grey Eagle, Buddy is victorious, brings down the enemy plane and captures the Grey Eagle. As a means of strategy, Buddy is assigned to take this noted German ace to Paris with him in an effort to get him to speak and reveal German military secrets.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

May 2, 1905

A meeting of stockholders of the Park Opera house association was held yesterday and the following board was named: President R. R. Wise, Vice President Dr. J. L. Camp, Secretary G. D. LaBar and Treasurer H. P. Dunn. The affairs of the association are in good shape.

O. G. Dahl has purchased the interest of his partner A. O. Finnes in the grocery business on Laurel street and will conduct the business alone in the future. He has been in business here for several years with various partners and has a large circle of friends.

Col. Thorpe his wife and two daughters returned this afternoon from Washington, D. C., where they have spent the winter. They left for their summer home at Hubert on the passenger train this afternoon.

The most important matter coming up at the council meeting last evening was the matter of the compensation to be allowed the city assessor for making the personal property assessment. At the last meeting the council passed a resolution fixing it at $700. This resolution was vetoed and the matter of passing it over the veto was up last night. By a vote of seven to three the council sustained Mayor O'Brien in his action. A petition for a new street east of 16th street in Southeast Brainerd was referred to the street committee and city engineer to report at next meeting. The question of sprinkling the streets was also up, the party doing the sprinkling had asked that as many business houses had refused to pay the city to make up the deficit. The council ordered the usual amount $50 for sprinkling the squares at the intersection of the streets paid, but declined to pay more.

May 3, 1905

Commissioner W. H. Andrews brings word that Willie Houston, age 16 years, was instantly killed yesterday near Emily. He was hauling logs and one of the logs rolled over him, killing him instantly. This is the second son Mr. and Mrs. Houston have lost since they moved here from Iowa a short time ago, the other son having died of pneumonia.

A telegram was received this morning by the Brainerd Grocery Company to the effect that the Minnesota Sugar Company plant at St. Louis Park was destroyed by fire last night and all seeding under the contracts recently made with the company will be stopped. The plant is supposed to represent an investment of close to $500,000.

For some time the work of erecting the new creamery building on Laurel street has been deferred largely on account of an insufficient water supply. Yesterday however a good flow of water was struck at 213 feet. The water is of sufficient quantity to enable them to go ahead with the rest of the work now and the building will be pushed rapidly to completion.

Mrs. F. H. Gruenhagen returned from St. Cloud this afternoon where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by her father, William Albrecht, of St. Cloud, who will visit here for a short time.

The members of the First Congregational church will meet tomorrow night to discuss the matter of engaging a pastor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Richard Brown.

Prof. Wm. Bartsch and W. A. M. Johnstone left last night for Oregon.

M. K. Swartz has sold to the O'Brien Mercantile company 40 acres of land located just north of the William Dodd farm on Oak street, receiving $5,000 spot cash for the tract. Mayor O'Brien stated this morning he was not sure what he would do with the property, but might possibly build a home there.

Back From Antarctica

Exclusive Rotogravure Section

ADMIRAL BYRD'S South Pole Pictures

This Sunday in The MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL

SERVICE NEWS

214 S. 6th St. Phone 26

Look Ahead One Year

You will have a Vacation Fund of $150, or more, in 1931 if you open an account with us now and deposit $3 weekly.

Compound Interest adds incentive to Thrift

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Affiliated with First Bank Stock Corporation. Completed resources over $427,000,000.

SIX CYLINDER SENTENCES

By DR. JOHN W. HOLLAND

O-O
Fear is the soul's tanglefoot. Few roses grow along the path-way to the Temple of Fame. If you can kill an enemy with kindness he will stay dead. The employee who watches himself will not need watching. The boy's worst day is the day when he "gets away with" his first lie. Can you remember when brides and bridegrooms began their housekeeping with a Family Bible? (© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Luxemburg

The grand duchy of Luxemburg is one of the tiniest and at the same time one of the most attractive countries of Europe. Its area is only 590 square miles, or about four-fifths that of Rhode Island.

Decorative Cactus Plant

Earthenware bowls artistically planted with cacti have a wonderful sense of character about them. They need very little attention, and being natives of the desert, comparatively little water. So if a housewife forgets to water them for a week, no irreparable damage will be done. But they must have plenty of light and they should be given light and sun upon the window sill.

First Slaves in America

In August, 1619, a Dutch vessel, said to be a man-of-war or a privateer from Flushing, sailed up the James river to Jamestown, Virginia, and landed slaves there. According to various authorities, the Colonial government purchased them in exchange for food and supplies, and sold them in turn to private settlers. There is no record of the name of the purchasers.

PIANO TUNER

Voicing, Regulating, Repairing and Re-building.
S. E. ENGBRETSON
1215 Oak St. Tel. 800-R
General Insurance

BRainerd Paramount

Home of Paramount Pictures
Phone 599

TONIGHT ONLY—7 and 9—10c and 50c

Elinor Glyn's

"Such Men are Dangerous"

with

WARNER BAXTER

CATHERINE DALE OWEN

The sensational drama of a man who bought a woman.

Also ALL TALKING COMEDY - SOUND REVIEW

SUNDAY ONLY—Continuous 2 to 11—10c and 50c

BUDDY and JEAN . . .

In A Sky-High, Breath-Taking

Romantic Drama Of Courageous Youth

The beloved hero of "WINGS" again an American ace! Zooming in perilous combat thousands of feet in the air!

Finding true love in the pleasure-crazed Paris of 1918. Matching wits with the enemy in mysterious, insidious intrigue! Intense! Exciting! Romantic! It's the "Wings" of the talking screen!

CHARLES (Buddy) ROGERS

"Young Eagles"

A Paramount ALL TALKING Picture

with

JEAN ARTHUR

and

PAUL LUKAS

SOUND NEWS

TALKCOMEDY

COLOR

SYMPHONY

Midnight Show TONIGHT

Pre-Showing of

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell

in

"High Society Blues"

Still Keeping Their Sunnyside Up These Lovers Come Back to You

Then a Three Day Run Starting Monday

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

WEEKLY WEATHER

Weather outlook for the period May 5-10, 1930:

Region of the Great Lakes—Frequent showers likely, temperature changes numerous, but probably no abnormally high or low readings.

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, and the northern and central great plains—Rather frequent precipitation; no marked extremes of temperature likely.

Minnesota—Probably showers or thunderstorms beginning tonight or Sunday; slightly warmer to night in east portion; somewhat cooler Sunday in west portion.

May 2.—High 68, low 43. In evening 64. Northwest wind. Clear. Trace rain in night.

May 3.—Minimum last night 43. At 8 A. M. 64. Southeast wind. Clear.

tion of a kitenball team for the Nokay Lake 4-H club last evening.

Miss Dorothy Quinlen of Minneapolis is spending a couple days in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Quinlen, 712 North Sixth street.

FOR SALE—Seed Corn at Senn & Cain. 2837feed

Mrs. John Pihlstrom returned to her home in Minneapolis after spending a few days in Brainerd visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

Ed. Moerke and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Davidson of Dykeman were Brainerd visitors yesterday afternoon. They called on friends and also transacted business.

Mrs. H. J. Brumberg of South Long Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rognaldson and A. T. Peterson, all of South Long Lake, were Brainerd shoppers and visitors today.

Miss Frances Taylor and her brother Ben Taylor arrived last evening from Soper, Okla., to spend the summer here, with their brothers Jim Taylor and Jess Taylor.

I have taken over the agency, from G. A. Soderlund, to sell Watkins Products in Brainerd. Prompt, courteous treatment. Your patronage appreciated. Phone 335-R. Carrie M. Taylor, 410 South 11th street.

Gerald Dunn, Franklin Ebner and Archer Crandall motored to St. Cloud this afternoon. They will attend the St. Cloud Teachers college Junior-Senior ball this evening.

Mrs. Edward Crust, Jr., and daughter Margaret Mary left today for McGregor to spend the day with Mrs. Crust's sister Miss Agnes Templeton. Miss Templeton teaches at McGregor.

The old time dance to have been held at Birchdale Pavilion June 9 by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has been cancelled until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dougherty announce the birth of a granddaughter at Bernicia, Calif. The child was born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dougherty. This is the second child in the family.

Miss Bessie Smith arrived today from Mission to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Northeast Brainerd. Miss Smith has just completed her school term for the year.

Mrs. Lloyd Larson and children of Makoda are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Morrison, 623 South Seventh street. Mr. Larson will motor to Brainerd tomorrow and Mrs. Larson and children will return with him tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Fred Bispham has returned from Benidji where she spent a short time visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Moody and family. She also arranged for a house there as they expect to move to Benidji in the near future. The home they have rented is at 1323 Minnesota avenue.

XYZ SEWING CLUB

Met Friday Afternoon at the Home of Mrs. Chester Thabes in West Brainerd

The regular meeting of the XYZ Sewing club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chester Thabes in West Brainerd. Nine members were present, one absent and two visitors.

After the busy hour, various reports were discussed and plans made for a good time to be had at the next meeting, June 6. This will be in celebration of the third anniversary of the club.

Following the discussions, a dinner consisting of veal stew on flaky baking powder biscuits, vegetable salad with home made rolls, cake and coffee was served by the hostess. At the close of the dinner a cake beautifully decorated with candles was brought in as a surprise on one of the members of the club, Mrs. Grace Fite, it being her birthday anniversary. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially.

Dr. and Mrs. B. I. Dersauf arrived this afternoon from St. Paul for a visit with friends in the city. They are former Brainerd residents.

Fred Johnson, club agent for Crow Wing county assisted in the organization of the XYZ Sewing Club.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Perpetuity of Love—And now bideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.—1 Cor. 13:13.

Prayer: May we daily partake more and more of that love which is God and which is forever.

Armstrong-Woodhead

Mrs. Evelyn Woodhead and Corwin C. Armstrong, advertising manager of the Minneapolis Tribune, were married Thursday, May 1 at Minneapolis.

They are spending the week end at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wieland at Hubert.

Methodist Organizations

The Young People's department of the Methodist Bible school and the Epworth League will each hold their separate business sessions at the church Monday evening at 7:45 p. m. The Epworth League will hold its annual election of officers. Following the business sessions, they will hold a joint social time.

ONE-THIRD OF POPULATION LIVING UNDER NEW FLAGS

Fifteen New Emblems Permanently Adopted by Nations Since the World War.

New York.—How many of the world's national flags could you identify if they were spread before you today? Probably not as many as you suppose, for more than one-third of the world's population is living today under emblems that were nonexistent at the end of the World war.

This interesting fact, significant of the political changes that have swept around the globe in the past few years, is pointed out in the Review of Reviews.

Fifteen nations, established on new and apparently enduring foundations, are flying new flags. But besides these there are new flags over such states as Palestine and Danzig, whose political futures are not yet secure; in India Ghandi's Nationalists are assembling under a new revolutionary tricolor, and the Vatican state now exists under the Papal flag with its newly recognized political status.

The 15 flags permanently adopted since the war are those of China, Russia, Germany, Poland, Egypt, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Union of South Africa, Finland, Irish Free state, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Palestine and Iceland.

The German flag of today, three horizontal bars of black, red and gold, is not a new conception. It appeared briefly during the efforts to unite the German states in 1813 and 1848, but was suppressed by the dynastic princes. The Russian Soviet flag derives from the Jacobin flag of the French revolution. It is blood red with a design of hammer, sickle and star in yellow, or the letters RSFSR, standing for Russian Socialist Federation of Soviet Republics, in white. China's new emblem is red with a blue field in the upper left corner, on which is a white sun. The new Polish flag is divided into horizontal halves, the upper of white and the lower red. On the white bar is the red shield bearing the traditional Polish eagle.

Czechoslovakia's flag indicates that nation's gratitude to Woodrow Wilson for his part in obtaining its independent status, notes the Review of Reviews article. It is of three parts, red, white and blue.

Boston Blind Teach Others in Own School

Boston.—Boston's trade school in which the blind are taught by the blind has just observed its first birthday.

Established for experimental purposes by the Massachusetts Association for Promoting the Interests of the Adult Blind, the institution trained 15 students at an expense of less than $2,000 during the last year.

Among the courses open to students are textile, basket, and mat weaving, making fancy brushes, canning, rush seating of antique furniture, and restringing of tennis racquets. It is planned to add woodworking and wrought iron art work to the curriculum as soon as the necessary equipment is available.

Emil Schoener of Dedham, blinded by an accidental shooting when he was five years old, is dean and instructor of the school. The more advanced pupils teach beginners.

One young man already has been graduated as an instructor of the blind. Another has secured a position in a shop. Still another has established a basket making establishment of his own.

American Melting Pot Upsets Beauty Standards

Chicago.—Artists of the Old World have deserted classic Venus to seek in Columbia, modern model, the ideal proportioned woman.

"The American melting pot has upset standards of beauty, fixed in marble by the sculptor's chisel, that have endured through 23 centuries," Mme. Helena Rubinstein of Paris and London, who has spent 30 years in the study of feminine beauty in all climates and countries, said at a meeting of a society of artists here.

"Race fusion in the United States has produced a new physical type, entirely at variance with the sculptured Venus. America, land of financial opportunity, is also the land where women have the best opportunity to preserve their beauty, through scientific care."

Charles "Buddy" Rogers, whose first great success on the screen was scored in that mighty epic of the air, "Wings," is again cast in a similar role in Paramount's all-talking romantic-drama of the air, "Young Eagles," coming to the Paramount theatre Sunday only. A thrilling picture whose throbbing action matches the superb sweep of the day when he can get a short leave to visit her. But his dreams are rudely shattered when the Germans, headed by the famous Grey Eagle, sweep over the American sector. In a thrilling air battle with the Grey Eagle, Buddy is victorious, brings down the enemy plane and captures the Grey Eagle. As a means of strategy, Buddy is assigned to take this noted German ace to Paris with him in an effort to get him to speak and reveal German military secrets.

Buddy Rogers plays the role of a daring young American aviator. In love with a beautiful American girl living in Paris, he dreams only of the day when he can get a short leave to visit her. But his dreams are rudely shattered when the Germans, headed by the famous Grey Eagle, sweep over the American sector. In a thrilling air battle with the Grey Eagle, Buddy is victorious, brings down the enemy plane and captures the Grey Eagle. As a means of strategy, Buddy is assigned to take this noted German ace to Paris with him in an effort to get him to speak and reveal German military secrets.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

May 2, 1905

A meeting of stockholders of the Park Opera house association was held yesterday and the following board was named: President R. R. Wise, Vice President Dr. J. L. Camp, Secretary G. D. LaBar and Treasurer H. P. Dunn. The affairs of the association are in good shape.

O. G. Dahl has purchased the interest of his partner A. O. Finnes in the grocery business on Laurel street and will conduct the business alone in the future. He has been in business here for several years with various partners and has a large circle of friends.

Col. Thorpe his wife and two daughters returned this afternoon from Washington, D. C., where they have spent the winter. They left for their summer home at Hubert on the passenger this afternoon.

The most important matter coming up at the council meeting last evening was the matter of the compensation to be allowed the city assessor for making the personal property assessment. At the last meeting the council passed a resolution fixing it at $700. This resolution was vetoed and the matter of passing it over the veto was up last night. By a vote of seven to three the council sustained Mayor O'Brien in his action. A petition for a new street east of 16th street in Southeast Brainerd was referred to the street committee and city engineer to report at next meeting. The question of sprinkling the streets was also up, the party doing the sprinkling had asked that as many business houses had refused to pay the city to make up the deficit. The council ordered the usual amount $50 for sprinkling the squares at the intersection of the streets paid, but declined to pay more.

May 3, 1905

Commissioner W. H. Andrews brings word that Willie Houston, age 16 years, was instantly killed yesterday near Emily. He was hauling logs and one of the chains unhooked and one of the logs rolled over him, killing him instantly. This is the second son Mr. and Mrs. Houston have lost since they moved here from Iowa a short time ago, the other son having died of pneumonia.

A telegram was received this morning by the Brainerd Grocery Company to the effect that the Minnesota Sugar Company plant at St. Louis Park was destroyed by fire last night and all seedling under the contracts recently made with the company will be stopped. The plant is supposed to represent an investment of close to $500,000.

For some time the work of erecting

Back From Antarctica

Exclusive Rotogravure Section

ADMIRAL BYRD'S South Pole Pictures

This Sunday in The MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL

SERVICE NEWS

214 S. 6th St. Phone 26

Look Ahead One Year

You will have a Vacation Fund of $150, or more, in 1931 if you open an account with us now and deposit $3 weekly.

Compound Interest adds incentive to Thrift

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Affiliated with First Bank Stock Corporation. Combined resources over $437,000,000.

SIX CYLINDER SENTENCES

By DR. JOHN W. HOLLAND

O-O

Fear is the soul's tanglefoot. Few roses grow along the pathway to the Temple of Fame. If you can kill an enemy with kindness he will stay dead. The employee who watches himself will not need watching. The boy's worst day is the day when he "gets away with" his first lie. Can you remember when brides and bridegrooms began their housekeeping with a Family Bible?

(© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Luxemburg

The grand duchy of Luxemburg is one of the tiniest and at the same time one of the most attractive countries of Europe. Its area is only 290 square miles, or about four-fifths that of Rhode Island.

Decorative Cactus Plant

Earthenware bowls artistically planted with cacti have a wonderful sense of character about them. They need very little attention, and being natives of the desert, comparatively little water. So if a housewife forgets to water them for a week, no irreparable damage will be done. But they must have plenty of light and they should be given light and sun upon the window sill.

First Slaves in America

In August, 1619, a Dutch vessel, said to be a man-of-war or a privateer from Flushing, sailed up the James river to Jamestown, Virginia, and landed slaves there. According to various authorities, the Colonial government purchased them in exchange for food and supplies, and sold them in turn to private settlers. There is no record of the name of the purchasers.

PIANO TUNER

Voicing, Regulating, Repairing and Rebuilding.

S. E. ENGBRETSON

1215 Oak St. Tel. 800-R

General Insurance

Paramount

Home of Paramount Pictures

Phone 599

TONIGHT ONLY—7 and 9—10c and 50c

Elinor Glyn's

"Such Men are Dangerous"

with

WARNER BAXTER

CATHERINE DALE OWEN

The sensational drama of a man who bought a woman.

Also ALL TALKING COMEDY - SOUND REVIEW

SUNDAY ONLY—Continuous 2 to 11—10c and 50c

BUDDY and JEAN . . .

In A Sky-High, Breath-Taking Romantic Drama Of Courageous Youth

The beloved hero of "WINGS" again an American ace! Zooming in perilous combat thousands of feet in the air!

Finding true love in the pleasure-crazed Paris of 1918.

Matching wits with the enemy in mysterious, insidious intrigue!

Intense! Exciting! Romantic! It's the "Wings" of the talking screen!

CHARLES (Buddy) ROGERS

in

"Young Eagles"

A Paramount ALL TALKING Picture

with

JEAN ARTHUR

and

PAUL LUKAS

SOUND NEWS

TALKCOMEDY

COLOR

SYMPHONY

Midnight Show TONIGHT

Pre-Showing of

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell

in

"High Society Blues"

Still Keeping Their Sunnyside Up These Lovers Come Back to You

Then a Three Day Run Starting Monday

SERVICES in the CHURCHES

Christ Blesses Little Children

Mark 10:13-16. And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. 14. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. 15. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. 16. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Prayer:
Grant us Thy Spirit, Lord, that each one of us may be a child of God and prove it by our loving care of children.

The Evangelical Church

Corner Fourth and C St.
Sunday school at 9:45.
No other services—Pastor out of town.

First Congregation Church

Church school, 9:30; high school department, 12.
Morning worship, 10:45. The pastor will preach on, "Prohibition Under Fire."
The Christian Endeavor meeting at 6 o'clock will be led by Genevieve Tweet.

N. P. Olmsted, Minister.

Brainerd Ministerial Association

The Brainerd Ministerial association will meet at the Y.M.C.A. Monday, May 5, at 10 a.m. for its annual election of officers and the transaction of regular business. The subject for discussion will be "Ministerial Ethics." The subject will be introduced by Rev. N. P. Olmsted.

St. Francis Catholic Church

402 North 9th St.
Sunday services—
First Mass, 7:45 a. m.
Second Mass, 9 a. m.
High Mass, 10 a. m.
Baptisms, 1:30 to 2 p. m.
Holy Hour, 7:30 p. m.
Instructions at all services.
Rev. Fr. James Hogan, pastor. Rev. Fr. David Taylor, assistant pastor.

First Swedish Baptist Church

Special Evangelistic services under the leadership of Pat Malone, nationally known Irish Evangelist. Don't fail to hear this human dynamo with a voice of iron, expose sin without fear or favor. Every night except Monday at 7:45 P. M. All services conducted in the English language. You are heartily welcome.

Carl J. Ackerman, Pastor.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

Seventh and Juniper
8 A. M.—Holy communion.
9:30 A. M.—Sunday school.
11 A. M.—Morning prayer and sermon.
11 A. M.—Holy communion first Sunday in every month.
Holy Day and special services announced.
The Rev. C. M. Brandon, Rector.
Res. 418 No. 7th St. Telephone 644.

Full Gospel Assembly

1 A St. N.E.
Sunday school and Bible class 1:45 P. M.
Afternoon preaching service 3:00.
Evening service 8:00.
Remember our Friday night services, we are having studies on the Book of Revelation.
You are invited to come.
We preach and believe the Bible to be the Word of God.
Ivan O. Miller, Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church

9:30—Our Primary.
10:30—The Lord's Supper will be observed. Reception of new members. The pastor's word. Anthem, the church chorus.
12—Our Sunday school.
6:45—Junior and Intermediate C. E.
7:45—"Enough," will be the pastor's theme. Young peoples chorus will sing. Every Sunday evening an opening song service.
Alexander G. Patterson, Pastor.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

Services are held in Iron Exchange Hall, third floor, Iron Exchange bldg. Sunday services at 11 A. M.
Topic: "Everlasting Punishment."
Sunday school—10 A. M.
Wednesday evening meetings at 8 P. M.
Reading room, 616½ Front Street, Walverman Block, open Tuesdays and Saturdays from 3 to 5 P. M.
All are welcome.

First Baptist Church

Sunday, May 4—9:45 A. M., Bible school. 11 A. M., worship and communion; subject: "Revelation." 6:45 P. M., E. Y. P. U. 7:45 P. M., service; subject: "A Regular Boy." Vocal soloist, Mrs. Ral Hall, trombone soloist, Miss Dorothy Schrader.
Wednesday, May 7, 8 P. M. Will Mission service.
Edgar A. Vallout, Acting Minister.

Bethlehem Lutheran Church

South Seventh Street
Sunday school and Bible classes at 10 A. M.
No morning worship this Sunday.
Evening worship in the English language at 7:45 P. M.
Anthems by the Junior church choir. In the morning at 11 o'clock, Divine services at Bethel church, South Long lake.

Mission Circle No. 2 will meet at the church assembly rooms Thursday afternoon. Hostesses, Mrs. Sigrid Swanson and Mrs. Peter Paulson.
Junior choir rehearsal Friday evening at 7 o'clock.
The confirmation class meets for instruction Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

J. R. Michaelson, Pastor.

Pequot Norse Lutheran

Sunday, May 4—Sunday school, 10 A. M. English worship 11 A. M.
Thursday, May 8—Sibley Ladies' Aid entertained by Mesdames Christensen, Murray and Miss Marie Christensen. Lunch served from 3 P. M. and on. A cordial welcome to all.
Sunday, May 11—Sunday school, 10 A. M. All other services cancelled because of the Circuit convention at Redtop and the church dedication at McGrath.
You are always welcome at our services.

Oscar Rem, Pastor.

Emily Circuit M. E. Church

Emily
Sunday school—10:30 A. M.
Preaching service—8 P. M.
Swanberg School House
Preaching service—10 A. M.
Sunday school—11 A. M.
Eagle Lake School House
Sunday school—10:30 A. M.
Preaching service—11:30 A. M.
These services are conducted every Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to come and enjoy them.

A. J. Oliver, Pastor.

Zion Lutheran Church

Missouri Synod
Corner Main and N. 8th St.
9:30 A. M. Sunday school.
9:30 A. M. German divine services.
10:45 A. M. English divine services.
The choir will meet on Tuesday at 7:30 P. M.
Religious instruction for children on Friday at 1:30 P. M.
F. C. Rathert, Pastor.

Swedish Bethany Church

Corner 9th and Maple Street
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship in Swedish at 11 a. m.
Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.
Evening service in English at 8 p. m.
The ladies aid will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the social rooms of the church, entertained by Mrs. Charles Swanson and Mrs. Charles Dahl. All members are asked to be present and visitors and friends are welcome.

P. G. Fallquist, minister.

Salvation Army

410 Front St.
Jail meeting, 10 A. M.
Holiness meeting, 11 A. M.
Sunday school 2 P. M.
Young Peoples Legion, 6:30 P. M.
Open Air, 7:30 P. M.
Evangelistic meeting, 8 P. M.
Theme: "What."
Tonight a very special meeting at the Salvation Army, 8 P. M.
Chorus for the week end:
"In My Heart Today."
"There's A Melody in My Heart Today."
"I Carried a Heavy Burden But It Rolled Away."
Come and learn this chorus tonight.
Ensign M. Parsons,
Mrs. R. Champion,
Officers.

The First Evangelical Lutheran Church

(Augustana Synod)
August Samuelson, pastor
Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. All will remain for the services.
English services at 10 a. m. The Junior choir will sing.
Swedish services at 11 a. m.
Bible hour at 7:45 p. m.
The confirmation class will meet on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. and Saturday at 1:30 p. m.
The Junior Choir will practice on Friday at 4:30 p. m.
At Pillager
The confirmation class will meet Sunday at 1:45 p. m. and Saturday at 9:30 p. m.
The ladies aid will meet on Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Norwegian-Danish Lutheran Church

Sunday school and Bible class at 9:30 a. m.
Divine services in the English language at 10:30 a. m.
Services in Vaale church at 2:30 p. m.
Services at Deerwood at 7:30 p. m.
The Men's club meets Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lystad. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody.
The ladies aid will serve a supper in the church social rooms Wednesday, May 7. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 p. m.
The confirmation class meets Saturday morning at the usual hour.
The semi-annual meeting of Milaca Circuit Lutheran churches will be held at the Holden church, Redtop, Aitkin Co., May 11, 12, 13. The Milaca Circuit includes Brainerd, Pequot, Staples, Little Falls, St. Cloud, Princeton, Milaca, Brookpark and Redtop.
O. L. Bolstad, pastor.

First Methodist Episcopal Church

Corner Juniper and 6th St. N.
Res. 624 Bluff Ave. N.
Phone 685-J
Bible school at 9:45 A. M., J. F. Zander, superintendent. Come, bring the children, and remain for church.

Morning worship at 11 A. M., sermon: "Our Church Membership Vows," Solo, "All in the April Evening," by Mrs. Ray Hall.

6:45 P. M. Epworth league. Miss Laura Becker will be the leader and the subject "The Guest for God."
7:45 P. M. Sunday evening song service and sermon. Sermon No. 2 in the series on the world's greatest short stories as found in the Bible.

Monday 7:45 P. M., the Epworth league and the Young Peoples department of the Bible school will hold separate business sessions and have a joint social time at the church. The league will have election of officers. Tuesday 4:15 P. M., the boys division of the King's Herald will not meet until further notice. 6:00 P. M. supper and program. 8:00 P. M. the Ladies' Bible class will entertain the Men's Bible class at the church.
Wednesday 7:30 P. M. official board meeting at the church.

Thursday 2:30 P. M. the Women's Missionary society will meet with Mrs. T. E. Witterauer, 307 Holly St. Mrs. T. H. Crosswell will be the leader. Please bring Home Missionary mite boxes. 4:15 church membership class at the church. 7:30 choir practice. 7:45 Bible study and prayer meeting. First Methodist church extends a kind invitation and promises a hearty welcome to all her services.

Singing Princess

Princess White Thunder, daughter of the chief of the Chippewa tribe at Bad River Reservation, who will sing Indian love songs at the annual benefit program of the Grand Council Fire of American Indians to be held in Chicago May 4.

Lawyer Wins Chief Justice's Daughter

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes announced the engagement of his daughter, Elizabeth Evans Hughes, to a youthful attorney associated with Hughes' former law firm. Miss Hughes' fiancé is William Thomas Gossett, of Salt Lake City.

Looking Ahead

Some day, an anthropologist tells us, the human brain may work 100 times as efficiently as it does today. Then we had better begin thinking of things to think about—Stoddard King in the Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Main Street Star in Love Suit

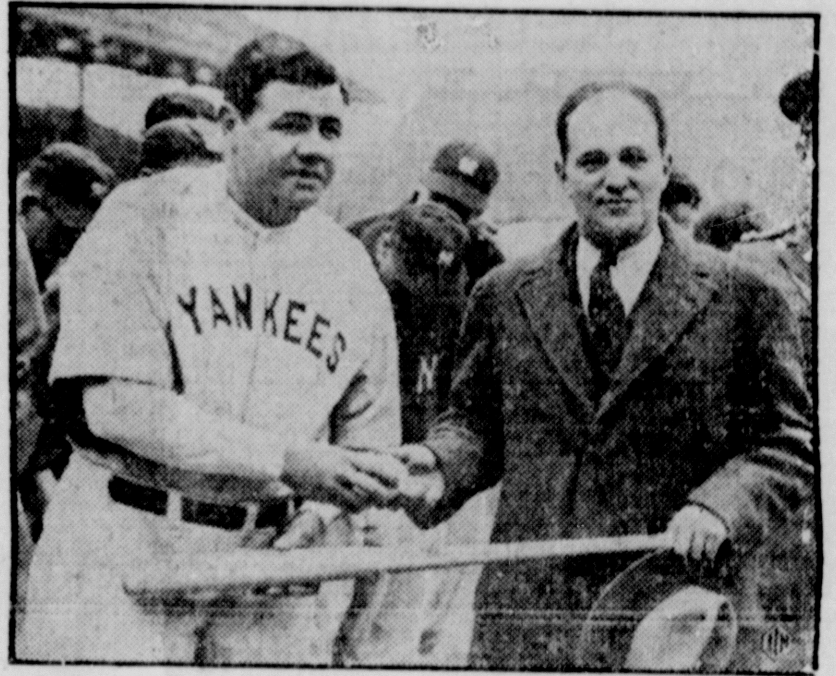

Mayor Luke Higgins, of "Main Street Sketches," and all of Titusville were scandalized to learn that the Mayor's irrepressible nephew, Wilbur, has all this time been a girl named Emily McCormack, who is accused by Mrs. Mary D. Tate Smith, New York social registerite, of going places with her husband, Albert Tate Smith. Above is pictured

"Wilbur," second from left, with some of his radioland colleagues before Mrs. Smith's separation suit revealed "him" as Emily McCormack. (Inset) Close-up of "Wilbur," who has been recognized as a mischievous youth by many radio fans and revealed as a pretty girl by Mrs. Smith.

(International Newsreel)

Bambino's Gifts to C. M. T. C.

Babe Ruth, king of clout and high priest of home runs, presents a large consignment of baseballs and bats to Assistant Secretary of War Trubee Davidson for use in citizens' military training camps this Summer. With the opening of the season, the national pastime is once more the king of sports and the Bambino has his hands full.

(International Newsreel)

Mother and Son Classmates

Mrs. Frank Slutz and her son, Leland, will both graduate from Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, in June, the former receiving an A. B. and the latter a B. S. deg. Mrs. Slutz attended the college from 1900 to 1904, did not take a degree at that time, but subsequently attended the Universities of Chicago and Cincinnati, as well as Wittenberg College.

(International Newsreel)

HOTEL DYCKMAN

Sixth Street, between Nicollet and Hennepin, Minneapolis, Minn.

STRICTLY FIREPROOF

Rates $1.50 per Day and Up

Every Room With a Bath

Located in the center of Shopping and Theatre District featuring a complete Luncheon at 50c; Dinner 75c First Class Cafe and Quick Service Coffee Shop,

D. M. DELANEY, Owner and Manager

LONG SERVICE

Her father was reading. The coast seemed clear. The young man approached, coughed and stammered his momentous question.
"I—er. That is, I—er. I would like to—I mean, I have— Well, sir, I've been going about with your daughter for five years now."
"I know," snapped the father angrily. "But what do you want—a pension?"

Beyond the Ordinary

"He sings in a manner that is heavenly!" said the gushful admirer.
"I shouldn't say it is exactly heavenly," said Miss Cayenne. "But I will at least admit that it is unearthly."—Washington Star.

Egotistical

Mrs. Benham—She is all eyes.
Benham—Well, she and her husband are well mated.
Mrs. Benham—What do you mean?
Benham—He is all "Ts."—Detroit News.

NOT ENOUGH IN THE FIRE

First Politician—Does the senator put enough fire in his speeches?
Second Politician—Oh, yes; but not enough speeches in the fire.

Serious Game

It's very clear that whilst may claim Rank as a matter serious.
For every one who plays the game Looks solemn and mysterious.

Evening a Total Loss

May—So the boy friend you dated with last night was a washout, eh?
Faye—From all the kissing and petting done on that date you would have thought we were an old married couple.

The Low-Down

Mrs. Fryer—I never size people up by the clothes they wear on the street.
Mrs. Guyer—Oh, I never do! Give me a line full of clothes every time, my dear.

Rain Colored by Dust

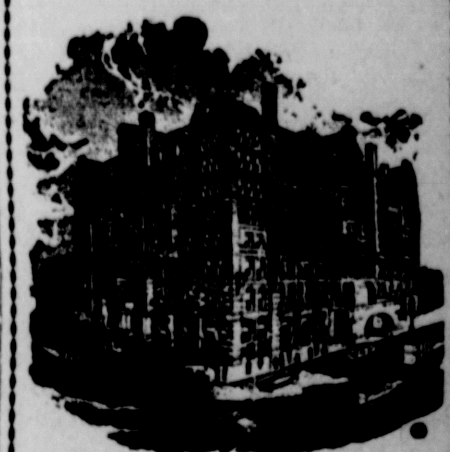

Widespread falls of dust occur from time to time in nearly all parts of the world. If rain happens to be falling at the same time it is more or less distinctly colored by the dust, though the color is not always red. In the United States occasionally showers fall in which the rain is colored yellow by pollen, generally from pine trees. In former times the substance thus deposited was mistaken for sulphur.

Serves Useful Purpose

The term "dunking" is applied to the moistening or softening of zwiebacks, cakes, crackers and bread crusts in coffee, tea or milk. While it is not considered good form, it is greatly enjoyed by small children and old people whose teeth are no longer strong enough to cope with such hard substances.

WEST HOTEL

5th and Hennepin
MINNEAPOLIS

The WEST HOTEL has for many years been the civic and social center of the Northwest—its most famous Hotel.

The WEST HOTEL, now under the new ownership of HARRY J. WEST, is located in downtown Minneapolis, close to the business, shopping and theatrical centers. All rooms are large, comfortable, outside and are arranged singly or in suites.

Coffee Shop Reasonable Prices
Garage Accommodations
400 Rooms—Rates $1.50 and up

HARRY J WEST
Proprietor

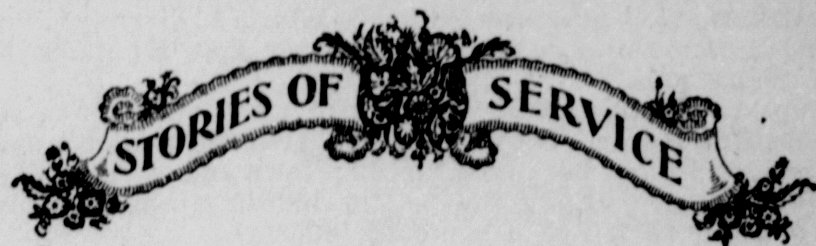

HELLO CHAIN STORES

What Do You Think of These Prices?

PEACHES, Half or Sliced	Large Can 2 for 48c
APRICOTS
SLICED PINEAPPLE
PEARS
RASPBERRIES	NO. 2 CAN 2 for . . 48c
STRAWBERRIES
BLACKBERRIES
DOUBLE DUTCH MALT, 3 Lb. Can
HILLS BROS. COFFEE, 1 Lb. Can	58¢
SAUER KRAUT, Large Can, 2 for	47¢
	25¢

YOUR GROCERY

Open Sundays and Evenings
823 Kingwood

Johnson wrote, "The man behind the plow bares Nature's sustaining bosom to the families of his brothers." The farmer is "His Brother's Keeper." Millions are nourished by the study and labor of these husbandmen whose love of agriculture has made them the mainstay of civilization.

D.E. Whitney
Funeral Director
OFFICE PHONE 31
RES. PHONE 168-594W

SERVICES in the CHURCHES

Christ Blesses Little Children

Mark 10:13-16. And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. 14. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. 15. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. 16. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Prayer:

Grant us Thy Spirit, Lord, that each one of us may be a child of God and prove it by our loving care of children.

The Evangelical Church

Corner Fourth and C St.
Sunday school at 9:45.
No other services—Pastor out of town.

First Congregation Church

Church school, 9:30; high school department, 12.
Morning worship, 10:45. The pastor will preach on, "Prohibition Under Fire."

The Christian Endeavor meeting at 6 o'clock will be led by Genevieve Tweet.

N. P. Olmsted, Minister.

Brainerd Ministerial Association

The Brainerd Ministerial association will meet at the Y.M.C.A. Monday, May 5, at 10 a.m. for its annual election of officers and the transaction of regular business. The subject for discussion will be "Ministerial Ethics." The subject will be introduced by Rev. N. P. Olmsted.

St. Francis Catholic Church

402 North 9th St.
Sunday services—
First Mass, 7:45 a. m.
Second Mass, 9 a. m.
High Mass, 10 a. m.
Baptisms, 1:30 to 2 p. m.
Holy Hour, 7:30 p. m.
Instructions at all services.
Rev. Fr. James Hogan, pastor. Rev. Fr. David Taylor, assistant pastor.

First Swedish Baptist Church

Special Evangelistic services under the leadership of Pat Malone, nationally known Irish Evangelist. Don't fail to hear this human dynamo with a voice of iron, expose sin without fear or favor. Every night except Monday at 7:45 P. M. All services conducted in the English language. You are heartily welcome.

Carl J. Ackerman, Pastor.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

Seventh and Juniper
8 A. M.—Holy communion.
9:30 A. M.—Sunday school.
11 A. M.—Morning prayer and sermon.
11 A. M.—Holy communion first Sunday in every month.
Holy Day and special services announced.
The Rev. C. M. Brandon, Rector.
Res. 418 No. 7th St. Telephone 644.

Full Gospel Assembly

1 A St. N.E.
Sunday school and Bible class 1:45 P. M.
Afternoon preaching service 3:00.
Evening service 8:00.
Remember our Friday night services, we are having studies on the Book of Revelation.
You are invited to come.
We preach and believe the Bible to be the Word of God.

Ivan O. Miller, Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church

9:30—Our Primary.
10:30—The Lord's Supper will be observed. Reception of new members. The pastor's word, Anthem, the church chorus.
12—Our Sunday school.
6:45—Junior and Intermediate C. E.
7:45—"Enough," will be the pastor's theme. Young peoples chorus will sing. Every Sunday evening an opening song service.

Alexander G. Patterson, Pastor.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

Services are held in Iron Exchange Hall, third floor, Iron Exchange bldg. Sunday services at 11 A. M.
Topic: "Everlasting Punishment." Sunday school—10 A. M.
Wednesday evening meetings at 8 P. M.
Reading room, 616½ Front Street, Walverman Block, open Tuesdays and Saturdays from 3 to 5 P. M.
All are welcome.

First Baptist Church

Sunday, May 4—9:45 A. M., Bible school. 11 A. M., worship and communion; subject: "Revelation." 6:45 P. M., B. Y. P. U. 7:45 P. M., service, subject: "A Regular Boy." Vocal soloist, Mrs. Ral Hall, trombone soloist, Miss Dorothy Schrader.
Wednesday, May 7, 8 P. M. Will Mission service.
Edgar A. Valiout, Acting Minister.

Bethlehem Lutheran Church

South Seventh Street
Sunday school and Bible classes at 10 A. M.
No morning worship this Sunday.
Evening worship in the English language at 7:45 P. M.
Anthems by the Junior church choir.
In the morning at 11 o'clock, Divine Zander, superintendent. Come, bring services at Bethel church, South Long lake.

Mission Circle No. 2 will meet at the church assembly rooms Thursday afternoon. Hostesses, Mrs. Sigrid Swanson and Mrs. Peter Paulson.
Junior choir rehearsal Friday evening at 7 o'clock.
The confirmation class meets for instruction Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

J. R. Michaelson, Pastor.

Pequot Norse Lutheran

Sunday, May 4—Sunday school, 10 A. M. English worship 11 A. M.
Thursday, May 8—Sibley Ladies' Aid entertained by Mesdames Christensen, Murray and Miss Marie Christensen. Lunch served from 3 P. M. and on. A cordial welcome to all.
Sunday, May 11—Sunday school, 10 A. M. All other services cancelled because of the Circuit convention at Redtop and the church dedication at McGrath.
You are always welcome at our services.

Oscar Rem, Pastor.

Emily Circuit M. E. Church

Emily
Sunday school—10:30 A. M.
Preaching service—8 P. M.
Swanberg School House
Preaching service—10 A. M.
Sunday school—11 A. M.
Eagle Lake School House
Sunday school—10:30 A. M.
Preaching service—11:30 A. M.
These services are conducted every Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to come and enjoy them.

A. J. Oliver, Pastor.

Zion Lutheran Church

Missouri Synod
Corner Main and N. 8th St.
9:30 A. M. Sunday school.
9:30 A. M. German divine services.
10:45 A. M. English divine services.
The choir will meet on Tuesday at 7:30 P. M.
Religious instruction for children on Friday at 1:30 P. M.
F. C. Rathert, Pastor.

Swedish Bethany Church

Corner 9th and Maple Street
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship in Swedish at 11 a. m.
Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.
Evening service in English at 8 p. m.
The ladies aid will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the social rooms of the church, entertained by Mrs. Charles Swanson and Mrs. Charles Dahl. All members are asked to be present and visitors and friends are welcome.

P. G. Fallquist, minister.

Salvation Army

410 Front St.
Jail meeting, 10 A. M.
Holliness meeting, 11 A. M.
Sunday school 2 P. M.
Young Peoples Legion, 6:30 P. M.
Open Air, 7:30 P. M.
Evangelistic meeting, 8 P. M.
Theme: "What."
Tonight a very special meeting at the Salvation Army, 8 P. M.
Chorus for the week end: "In My Heart Today."
"There's A Melody in My Heart Today."
"I Carried a Heavy Burden But It Rolled Away."
Come and learn this chorus tonight.
Ensign M. Parsons,
Mrs. R. Champion,
Officers.

The First Evangelical Lutheran Church

(Augustana Synod)
August Samuelson, pastor
Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. All will remain for the services.
English services at 10 a. m. The Junior choir will sing.
Swedish services at 11 a. m.
Bible hour at 7:45 p. m.
The confirmation class will meet on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. and Saturday at 1:30 p. m.
The Junior Choir will practice on Friday at 4:30 p. m.

At Pillager
The confirmation class will meet Sunday at 1:45 p. m. and Saturday at 9:30 p. m.
The ladies aid will meet on Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Norwegian-Danish Lutheran Church

Sunday school and Bible class at 9:30 a. m.
Divine services in the English language at 10:30 a. m.
Services in Vaale church at 2:30 p. m.
Services at Deerwood at 7:30 p. m.
The Men's club meets Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lystad. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody.

The ladies aid will serve a supper in the church social rooms Wednesday, May 7. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 p. m.

The confirmation class meets Saturday morning at the usual hour.
The semi-annual meeting of Milaca Circuit Lutheran churches will be held at the Holden church, Redtop, Aitkin Co., May 11, 12, 13. The Milaca Circuit includes Brainerd, Pequot, Staples, Little Falls, St. Cloud, Princeton, Milaca, Brookpark and Redtop.

O. L. Bolstad, pastor.

First Methodist Episcopal Church

Corner Juniper and 6th St. N.
Res. 624 Bluff Ave. N.
Phone 685-J
Bible school at 9:45 A. M., J. F. Zander, superintendent. Come, bring

Singing Princess

Princess White Thunder, daughter of the chief of the Chippewa tribe at Bad River Reservation, who will sing Indian love songs at the annual benefit program of the Grand Council Fire of American Indians to be held in Chicago May 4.

Lawyer Wins Chief Justice's Daughter

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes announced the engagement of his daughter, Elizabeth Evans Hughes, to a youthful attorney associated with Hughes' former law firm. Miss Hughes' fiancé is William Thomas Gossett, of Salt Lake City.

Looking Ahead

Some day, an anthropologist tells us, the human brain may work 100 times as efficiently as it does today. Then we had better begin thinking of things to think about.—Stoddard King in the Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Main Street Star in Love Suit

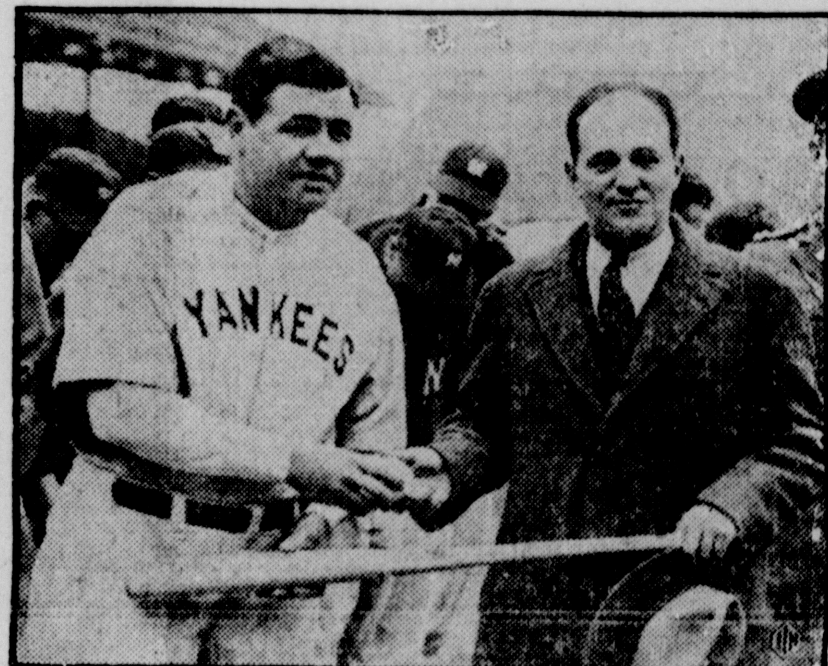

Mayor Luke Higgins, of "Main Street Sketches," and all of Titusville were scandalized to learn that the Mayor's irrepressible nephew, Wilbur, has all this time been a girl named Emily McCormack, who is accused by Mrs. Mary D. Tate Smith, New York social registerite, of going places with her husband, Albert Tate Smith. Above is pictured

"Wilbur," second from left, with some of his radioland colleagues before Mrs. Smith's separation suit revealed "him" as Emily McCormack. (Inset) Close-up of "Wilbur," who has been recognized as a mischievous youth by many radio fans and revealed as a pretty girl by Mrs. Smith.

(International Newsreel)

Bambino's Gifts to C. M. T. C.

Babe Ruth, king of clout and high priest of home runs, presents a large consignment of baseballs and bats to Assistant Secretary of War Trubee Davidson for use in citizens' military training camps this Summer. With the opening of the season, the national pastime is once more the king of sports and the Bambino has his hands full.

(International Newsreel)

Mother and Son Classmates

Mrs. Frank Slutz and her son, Leland, will both graduate from Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, in June. The former receiving an A. B. and the latter a B. S. degree. Mrs. Slutz attended the college from 1900 to 1904, did not take a degree at that time, but subsequently attended the Universities of Chicago and Cincinnati, as well as Wittenberg College.

(International Newsreel)

HOTEL DYCKMAN

Sixth Street, between Nicollet and Hennepin, Minneapolis, Minn.

STRICTLY FIREPROOF

Rates $1.50 per Day and Up

Every Room With a Bath

Located in the center of Shopping and Theatre District featuring a complete Luncheon at 50c; Dinner 75c First Class Cafe and Quick Service Coffee Shop.

D. M. DELANEY, Owner and Manager

LONG SERVICE

Her father was reading. The coast seemed clear. The young man approached, coughed and stammered his momentous question.

"I—er. That is, I—er. I would like to—I mean, I have— Well, sir, I've been going about with your daughter for five years now."

"I know," snapped the father angrily. "But what do you want—a pension?"

Beyond the Ordinary

"He sings in a manner that is heavenly," said the gushful admirer.

"I shouldn't say it is exactly heavenly," said Miss Cayenne. "But I will at least admit that it is unearthly."—Washington Star.

Egotistical

Mrs. Benham—She is all eyes. Benham—Well, she and her husband are well mated.

Mrs. Benham—What do you mean? Benham—He is all "T's."—Detroit News.

NOT ENOUGH IN THE FIRE

First Politician—Does the senator put enough fire in his speeches? Second Politician—Oh, yes; but not enough speeches in the fire.

Serious Game

It's very clear that what may claim Rank as a matter serious, For every one who plays the game Looks solemn and mysterious.

Evening a Total Loss

May—So the boy friend you dated with last night was a washout, eh? Faye—From all the kissing and petting done on that date you would have thought we were an old married couple.

The Low-Down

Mrs. Pryer—I never size people up by the clothes they wear on the street. Mrs. Guyer—Oh, I never do! Give me a line full of clothes every time, my dear.

Rain Colored by Dust

Widespread falls of dust occur from time to time in nearly all parts of the world. If rain happens to be falling at the same time it is more or less distinctly colored by the dust, though the color is not always red. In the United States occasionally showers fall in which the rain is colored yellow by pollen, generally from pine trees. In former times the substance thus deposited was mistaken for sulphur.

Serves Useful Purpose

The term "dunking" is applied to the moistening or softening of zwiebacks, cakes, crackers and bread crumbs in coffee, tea or milk. While it is not considered good form, it is greatly enjoyed by small children and old people whose teeth are no longer strong enough to cope with such hard substances.

WEST HOTEL

5th and Hennepin
MINNEAPOLIS

The WEST HOTEL has for many years been the civic and social center of the Northwest—its most famous Hotel.

The WEST HOTEL, now under the new ownership of HARRY J. WEST, is located in downtown Minneapolis, close to the business, shopping and theatrical centers. All rooms are large, comfortable, outside and are arranged singly or in suites.

Coffee Shop Reasonable Prices
Garage Accommodations
400 Rooms—Rates $1.50 and up

HARRY J WEST
Proprietor

HELLO CHAIN STORES

What Do You Think of These Prices?

PEACHES, Half or Sliced
APRICOTS
SLICED PINEAPPLE
PEARS

Large Can
2 for 48c

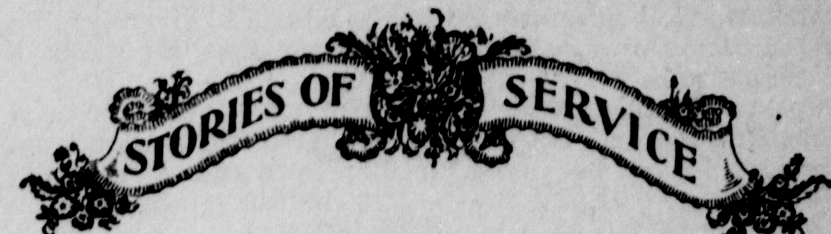

RASPBERRIES
STRAWBERRIES
BLACKBERRIES

NO. 2 CAN
2 for . . 48c

DOUBLE DUTCH MALT, 3 Lb. Can . . . 58¢
HILLS BROS. COFFEE, 1 Lb. Can . . . 47¢
SAUER KRAUT, Large Can, 2 for . . . 25¢

YOUR GROCERY

Open Sundays and Evenings
823 Kingwood

Johnson wrote, "The man behind the plow bares Nature's sustaining bosom to the families of his brothers." The farmer is "His Brother's Keeper." Millions are nourished by the study and labor of these husbandmen whose love of agriculture has made them the mainstay of civilization.

D.E. Whitney
Funeral Director
OFFICE PHONE 31
RES. PHONE 168-594-W

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month 50c, three months $1.25, one year $5.00.
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00, one year $4.00.
Weekly Dispatch—One year $1.50.

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1930

Under High Pressure

MEN working under high pressure are apt at times to lose their seemingly equable temper and actually explode. Others whose occupations or avocations are cast in more peaceful pursuits often wonder what it is all about.

Take a train dispatcher, for instance. His job is to keep trains moving quickly and without accident. When bothered by things outside his sphere of duty, the momentary interruptions may take his mind off his trains and wear down his temper.

A bus driver keeps his eye and mind on the road. If passengers attempt to carry on conversations with him on irrelevant subjects, he may lapse into a collision.

Passengers on ocean liners are rarely allowed on the bridge, and then only by special permission. The navigators must concentrate on ship operations.

A surgeon performing an operation has the life of his patient at stake and dare not be interrupted. His mind, every faculty is concentrated on the work at hand.

The man who can concentrate on four jobs at one time and answer current interruptions is hard to find. His counterpart in real life is the housewife, with a baby on her arm, who keeps up housework, gets the children to school, gets the dinner ready, answers the phone and the doorbell, keeps up household repair work, is financier and director of the household. And many a time mere man, who may know nothing about it, has the temerity to say that housework is no occupation.

County Attorney's Report

THE DISPATCH has published the gist of County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan's report for the year and it is a comprehensive record of work well done and affairs of the office administered with that desire for law enforcement and economy of operations so favorably considered by all taxpayers.

Cases when carried to the courts by County Attorney Sullivan invariably resulted in convictions. Of the 83 cases handled in district court and 79 in municipal, only two acquittals resulted in district court and one in municipal court. Only five days of court were consumed in the handling of criminal cases where juries were required, the report states.

It has resulted in a saving to the county in the cost of maintaining the court and jury in that only a few days was consumed in the trial of criminal cases. It was necessary to call but one grand jury in 1929 which only sat one day.

A record as so achieved is worthy the commendation of all citizens and the report published in the Dispatch should be studied by all.

Mother's Day on May 11

MOTHER'S DAY will be observed on Sunday, May 11, and greetings will be sent to her by letter, by telegram, by telephone, by flowers, by books, and in other ways.

There should really be no special day for mother, for dutiful children should always think of her. But as a day has been set apart for especial honors, all should observe the custom and remember her.

As one wrote to his mother: "All that I am, all that I hope to be, I owe to you, dear mother. With the passing years the realization of my debt of gratitude grows more profound and my love ever deeper and stronger."

God in his wisdom and loving kindness made mothers so that everyone, no matter how unworthy, might have someone to love him supremely.

Not All Eggs in One Basket

BRAINERD is to be commended for its efforts to diversify lines of business. The railway shops, as in pioneer days, are the backbone of the payrolls.

Coupled with this are the payrolls of many other manufacturing institutions and beyond that the growing tourist trade, whose importance has been recognized by town and county.

The farming, dairying and poultry industry near Brainerd is of growing importance. The mining industry is a latent factor and any time work is resumed on the South Cuyuna range, Brainerd will immediately benefit.

Thus the city of Brainerd has not concentrated its eggs in one basket.

Value of Center Line

THE value of a painted center line on tarvia was particularly noticeable Tuesday evening when fog and drizzling rain obscured sides of the tarvia on No. 19 north of Brainerd.

The dark tarvia blends with the surrounding country and without the center line as a guide there would certainly have been a number of car collisions. Several shades appear to have been painted on No. 19, white, yellow and orange, but orange appears to be the most distinct.

Mike Mareca of Hartley Lake was largely instrumental in having the line painted and as he travels over that tarvia he knew what was needed for safe navigation in the fog.

SEVERAL hundred natives of Iceland now living in Minnesota, the Dakotas and western Canada will journey to their homeland in June to celebrate the founding of the world's first democratic government.

MAY brings to mind the fact that the first half of current real estate taxes should be paid on or before the last of the month. If not done so, a penalty attaches the first of June.

PROFESSORS and instructors from all over the United States and Minnesota will come to Minneapolis to teach at the summer session of the University of Minnesota.

WITH unemployment what it is, we call it downright unpatriotic of those New York banks to merge and throw thousands of vice presidents out of work.—Judge.

JUST what are the qualifications of a supreme court justice, so that he will be able to please all people.

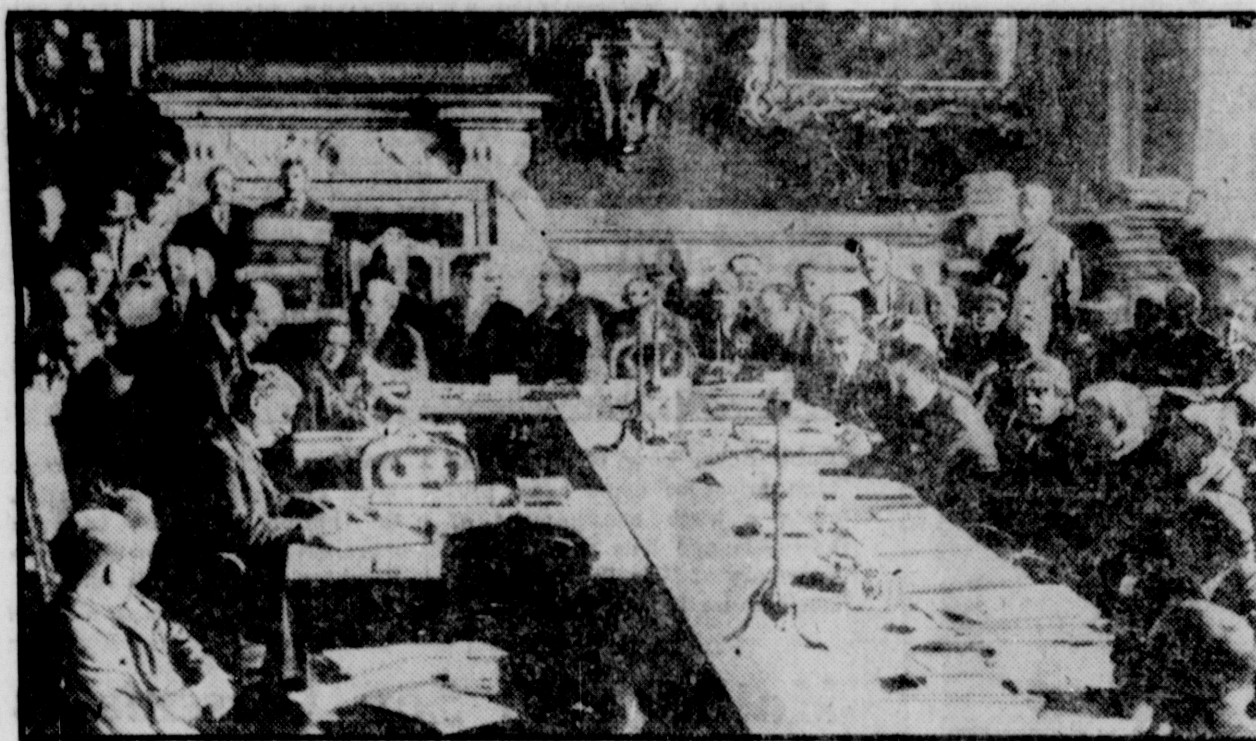

DEATH is reaping a heavy harvest of many pioneers of town and county.

Fruit of 13 Weeks, Naval Negotiations

Delegates to the five-power arms parley in London pictured presenting the London naval treaty to President Herbert Hoover. (Left to right) Senator Robinson, Secretary of State Henry Stimson and President Hoover. (International Newsreel)

Delegates Sign Five-Power Naval Pact

General view of the historic ceremony in St. James's Palace during the signing of the five-power naval pact by the delegates representing the United States, England, France, Japan and Italy, under which the five great nations agreed on a limitation of naval armament. Secretary of State Stimson is shown (at left) signing the treaty for the United States. (International Newsreel)

She Leaves College to Probe Jungles

This University of California co-ed, Miss Elizabeth Steen, is making final preparations for her jungle into the heart of South America for the purpose of studying the Tapirape Indians. (International Newsreel)

As Seen in San Francisco

Between 11 A. M. and 1 P. M., Pacific standard time, practically 99 per cent of the citizenry of San Francisco, Cal., saw this sight as the moon finished its game of hide and seek with the sun and prepared to hide itself away. In this picture the famous American Telephone Building is silhouetted against the false twilight. (International Newsreel)

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today

WCCO

5:00 p. m.—The Captivators.
5:55 p. m.—Road Conditions Bulletin and Mpls. Star News Story.
6:00 p. m.—Dinner Concert—Wesley Barlow's Orchestra.
6:25 p. m.—World Book Man.
6:30 p. m.—Pireside Philosophies—Rev. Roy L. Smith of Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis.
6:45 p. m.—Dixie Echoes.
7:00 p. m.—Hank Simmons Showboat.
8:00 p. m.—Paramount Public Hour.
9:00 p. m.—Hotel Paramount Orchestra.
9:30 p. m.—Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians.
10:00 p. m.—Weather Report.
10:05 p. m.—Dance Program—Dick Long's Orchestra.
11:05 p. m.—Minneapolis Arena.
11:35 p. m.—Hotel Lowry Night Club Program with Eddie Dunstetter and his Orchestra.

KSTP

6:00 p. m.—Gene and Glenn and the Puritan Maid.
6:30 p. m.—Del Monte Products.
7:00 p. m.—General Electric Symphony.
8:00 p. m.—Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra.
9:00 p. m.—Musical Feature.
9:30 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
9:45 p. m.—Floyd Gibbons.
10:05 p. m.—Rudy Vallee and his Orchestra.
11:01 p. m.—Uncle Josh and his Huskers.
11:30 p. m.—Athletic Club Orchestra.
11:45 p. m.—Casino Orchestra.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight Club.
Five Best Features
Copyright 1930 by United Press
WABC CBS Network, 4:30 p. m.—Husing Sportsclans.
WEAF NBC Network, 5 p. m.—Floyd Williams.
WEAF NBC Network, 6:30 p. m.—Del Monte Program.
WEAF NBC Network, 7 p. m.—General Electric Hour.
WJZ NBC Network, 7:15 p. m.—Cub Reporter.

Sunday

WCCO

9:45 a. m.—First Trinity Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, Rev. Julius Huchthausen, Pastor.
10:50 a. m.—Westminster Presbyterian church, Minneapolis, Rev. John E. Bushnell, D. D., pastor.
12:30 p. m.—Ballad Hour.
1:00 p. m.—Columbia Male Chorus.
1:30 p. m.—Conclave of Nations.
2:00 p. m.—Cathedral Hour.
3:00 p. m.—Quiet Harmonies.
4:30 p. m.—House of Hope Presbyterian Church, St. Paul.
5:30 p. m.—Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Minneapolis.
6:45 p. m.—Around the Samovar.
7:00 p. m.—Majestic Theatre of the Air.
8:00 p. m.—Squibb's Program.
8:30 p. m.—Bardell Oil Co.
9:00 p. m.—Veelol Orchestra.
9:30 p. m.—Musical Program.
10:00 p. m.—Weather Report.
10:05 p. m.—Coral Islanders.
10:30 p. m.—Midnight Melodies.

KSTP

12:00 m.—Roxy Symphony.
1:00 p. m.—Dr. Francis Richter—Organ Concert.
2:00 p. m.—Sunshine Boys and the Beachcombers.
3:00 p. m.—Dr. Harry Emerson Fossdick.
4:00 p. m.—Catholic Religious Hour.
5:00 p. m.—Los Angeles.
5:30 p. m.—Capitol Theatre Family.
5:55 p. m.—Baseball Scores.
6:00 p. m.—Enna Jettick Melodies.
6:15 p. m.—KSTP Players.
6:30 p. m.—Chase & Sanborn Choral Orchestra.
7:00 p. m.—Garrott's Chocolateaters.
7:15 p. m.—Atwater Kent Concert.
8:15 p. m.—Studebaker Champions.
8:45 p. m.—Sunday Evening at Seth Parker's.
9:15 p. m.—Russian Cathedral Choir.
9:30 p. m.—First National Bank Hour.
10:05 p. m.—Organ Concert—Classical to Jazz.
11:01 p. m.—Gody Bowen's Orchestra.
11:30 p. m.—Frank Cotier's Orchestra.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1930 by United Press
WJZ NBC Network, 6:15 p. m.—Collier's Hour.
WABC CBS Network, 7 p. m.—Majestic Air Theatre.
WEAF NBC Network, 7:15 p. m.—Atwater Kent Hour.
WJZ NBC Network, 8:15 p. m.—National Oratorio.
WABC CBS Network, 10 p. m.—Coral Islanders.

Monday

WCCO

6:30 a. m.—Time Signal Program.
8:30 a. m.—News Bulletin.
8:45 a. m.—Market Reports and New York Stock Exchange.
9:50 a. m.—New Rugs for Old.
9:55 a. m.—Bohn Refrigerator Special.
10:10 a. m.—Nationwide Voice of Montgomery Ward & Co.
10:15 a. m.—Witt's Cooking School of the Air.
10:30 a. m.—Weather and Market Reports; New York Stock Exchange.

10:50 a. m.—Myndall Cain's Lessons in Feminine Loveliness.
11:00 a. m.—Purity Maid Program.
11:10 a. m.—Gardner Nursery.
11:15 a. m.—Yoeng's Orchestra.
11:30 a. m.—Harold Stern and Ambassador Orchestra.
11:45 a. m.—Minnesota Police Association Bulletin.
11:55 a. m.—Ole the Trapper.
12:00 m.—Columbia Farm Community Network.
12:25 p. m.—Jim Deeds of Gold Medal Feeds.
12:50 p. m.—Maple Dale Chix.
1:05 p. m.—Livestock Market Summary; Weather and Market Reports.
1:30 p. m.—Hamline Radio University.
1:45 p. m.—Women's Forum.
2:00 p. m.—New York Stock Exchange.
2:05 p. m.—American Fantasy.
3:00 p. m.—Baseball Game—Minneapolis vs. Louisville.
5:00 p. m.—Current Events.
5:40 p. m.—Road Conditions Bulletin.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock Market Summary.
5:55 p. m.—Baseball Scores and Mpls. Star News Story.
6:00 p. m.—Henry-George.
6:30 p. m.—Ceco Couriers.
7:00 p. m.—Musical Program.
7:30 p. m.—Evening in Paris.
8:30 p. m.—Gold Strand Crusaders.
9:00 p. m.—Hamline University Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Hotel Paramount Orchestra.
10:00 p. m.—Weather Report and Baseball Scores.
10:05 p. m.—Musical Program.
10:15 p. m.—Talk by Claude R. May, Candidate for St. Paul Councilman.
10:30 p. m.—Frank McInerney and Fred Lundberg, the Politicians.
10:50 p. m.—Midnight Melodies.
11:00 p. m.—Dick Long's Dance Orchestra.

KSTP

6:00 p. m.—Voice of Firestone.
6:30 p. m.—Mac and Al—The McAleer Boys.
6:45 p. m.—WLE Program.
7:00 p. m.—Ted Florito and Orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—General Motors Family Party.
8:00 p. m.—Stromberg Carlson Hour.
8:30 p. m.—Empire Builders.
9:00 p. m.—Seeger Melody Musketeers.
9:30 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
9:45 p. m.—Floyd Gibbons.
10:00 p. m.—Weather; Baseball Scores.
10:15 p. m.—Cleveland Hughes Male Quartet.
10:35 p. m.—Dan Russo and his Orchestra.
11:01 p. m.—Vaudeville Hour.
12:00 p. m.—Dance Feature.
Five Best Features
Copyright 1930 by United Press
WJZ NBC Network, 4 p. m.—Mormon Choir.
WABC CBS Network, 6 p. m.—Henry and George.
WEAF NBC Network, 7:30 p. m.—G. M. Family Party.
WEAF NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Sign of Shell.
WABC CBS Network, 9 p. m.—The Columbians.

Love Welds All Together

Love is the fusing element of all life; the tremulous, softly defined horizon-line that at once separates and unites the spheres, terminating our human vision; the trysting-place where earth and heaven meet.—Lucy Larcom.

Start of Pony Express

The first announcement of the formation of the Pony express, one of the most spectacular institutions of the old days of this country, was made in March, 1850.

New NICOLLET HOTEL

"At the Gateway" of Minneapolis

NICOLLET-WASHINGTON
HENNEPIN AVENUES

—600—

First Class Rooms

AND

Three Restaurants

at MODERATE RATES

Excellent Food

Courteous Service

Central Location

W. B. CLARK, MANAGER

Home of WCCO Studios

GOOD BEDS

YOU SLEEP

IN

COMFORT

Try a Dispatch
Want Ad
For Best Selling
Results

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month 50c, three months $1.25, one year $5.00.
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00, one year $4.00.
Weekly Dispatch—One year $1.50.

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1930

Under High Pressure

MEN working under high pressure are apt at times to lose their seemingly equable temper and actually explode. Others whose occupations or avocations are cast in more peaceful pursuits often wonder what it is all about.

Take a train dispatcher, for instance. His job is to keep trains moving quickly and without accident. When bothered by things outside his sphere of duty, the momentary interruptions may take his mind off his trains and wear down his temper.

A bus driver keeps his eye and mind on the road. If passengers attempt to carry on conversations with him on irrelevant subjects, he may lapse into a collision.

Passengers on ocean liners are rarely allowed on the bridge, and then only by special permission. The navigators must concentrate on ship operations.

A surgeon performing an operation has the life of his patient at stake and dare not be interrupted. His mind, every faculty is concentrated on the work at hand.

The man who can concentrate on four jobs at one time and answer current interruptions is hard to find. His counterpart in real life is the housewife, with a baby on her arm, who keeps up housework, gets the children to school, gets the dinner ready, answers the phone and the doorbell, keeps up household repair work, is financier and director of the household. And many a time mere man, who may know nothing about it, has the temerity to say that housework is no occupation.

County Attorney's Report

THE DISPATCH has published the gist of County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan's report for the year and it is a comprehensive record of work well done and affairs of the office administered with that desire for law enforcement and economy of operations so favorably considered by all taxpayers.

Cases when carried to the courts by County Attorney Sullivan invariably resulted in convictions. Of the 83 cases handled in district court and 79 in municipal, only two acquittals resulted in district court and one in municipal court. Only five days of court were consumed in the handling of criminal cases where juries were required, the report states.

It has resulted in a saving to the county in the cost of maintaining the court and jury in that only a few days was consumed in the trial of criminal cases. It was necessary to call but one grand jury in 1929 which only sat one day.

A record as so achieved is worthy the commendation of all citizens and the report published in the Dispatch should be studied by all.

Mother's Day on May 11

MOTHER'S DAY will be observed on Sunday, May 11, and greetings will be sent to her by letter, by telegram, by telephone, by flowers, by books, and in other ways.

There should really be no special day for mother, for dutiful children should always think of her. But as a day has been set apart for especial honors, all should observe the custom and remember her.

As one wrote to his mother: "All that I am, all that I hope to be, I owe to you, dear mother. With the passing years the realization of my debt of gratitude grows more profound and my love ever deeper and stronger."

God in his wisdom and loving kindness made mothers so that everyone, no matter how unworthy, might have someone to love him supremely.

Not All Eggs in One Basket

BRAINERD is to be commended for its efforts to diversify lines of business. The railway shops, as in pioneer days, are the backbone of the payrolls.

Coupled with this are the payrolls of many other manufacturing institutions and beyond that the growing tourist trade, whose importance has been recognized by town and county.

The farming, dairying and poultry industry near Brainerd is of growing importance. The mining industry is a latent factor and any time work is resumed on the South Cuyuna range, Brainerd will immediately benefit.

Thus the city of Brainerd has not concentrated its eggs in one basket.

Value of Center Line

THE value of a painted center line on tarvia was particularly noticeable Tuesday evening when fog and drizzling rain obscured sides of the tarvia on No. 19 north of Brainerd.

The dark tarvia blends with the surrounding country and without the center line as a guide there would certainly have been a number of car collisions. Several shades appear to have been painted on No. 19, white, yellow and orange, but orange appears to be the most distinct.

Mike Marea of Hartley Lake was largely instrumental in having the line painted and as he travels over that tarvia he knew what was needed for safe navigation in the fog.

SEVERAL hundred natives of Iceland now living in Minnesota, the Dakotas and western Canada will journey to their homeland in June to celebrate the founding of the world's first democratic government.

MAY brings to mind the fact that the first half of current real estate taxes should be paid on or before the last of the month. If not done so, a penalty attaches the first of June.

PROFESSORS and instructors from all over the United States and Minnesota will come to Minneapolis to teach at the summer session of the University of Minnesota.

WITH unemployment what it is, we call it downright unpatriotic of those New York banks to merge and throw thousands of vice presidents out of work.—Judge.

JUST what are the qualifications of a supreme court justice, so that he will be able to please all people.

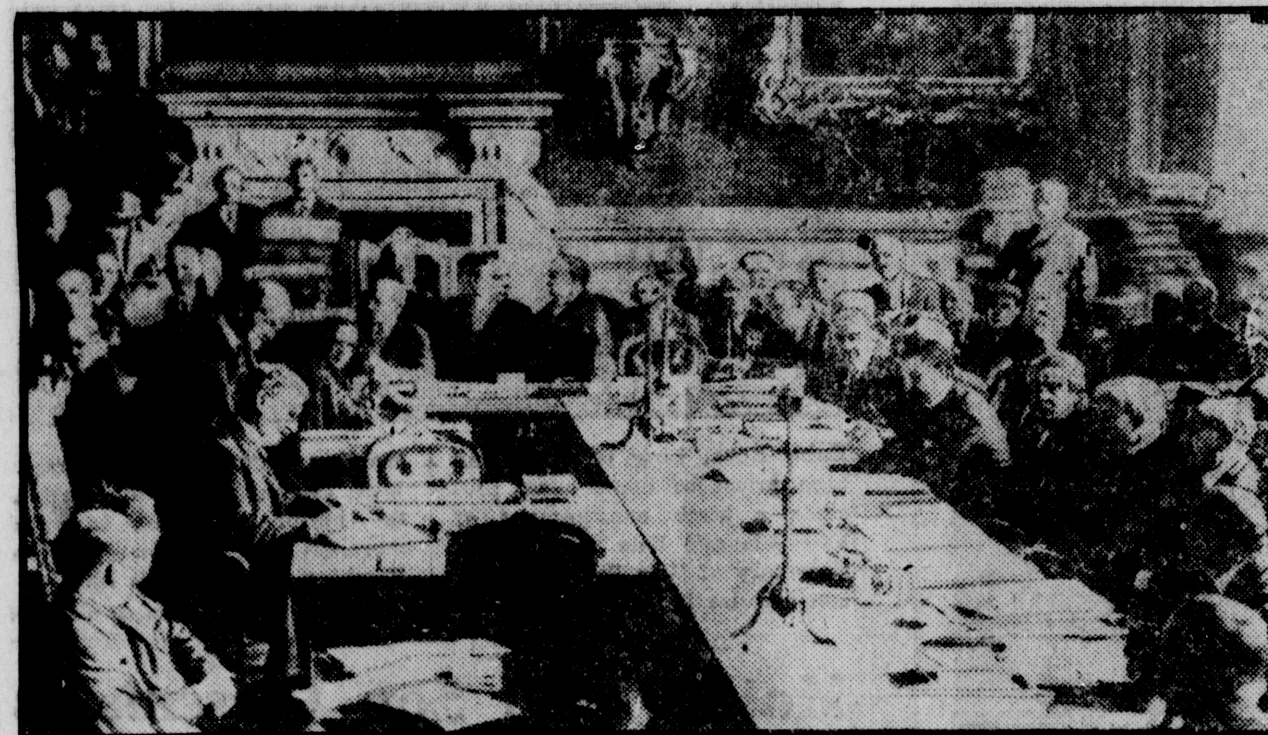

DEATH is reaping a heavy harvest of many pioneers of town and county.

Fruit of 13 Weeks, Naval Negotiations

Delegates to the five-power arms parley in London pictured presenting the London naval treaty to President Herbert Hoover. (Left to right) Sen. Robinson, Secretary of State Henry Stimson and President Hoover. (International Newsreel)

Delegates Sign Five-Power Naval Pact

General view of the historic ceremony in St. James's Palace during the signing of the five-power naval pact by the delegates representing the United States, England, France, Japan and Italy, under which the five great nations agreed on a limitation of naval armament. Secretary of State Stimson is shown (at left) signing the treaty for the United States. (International Newsreel)

She Leaves College to Probe Jungles

This University of California co-ed, Miss Elizabeth Steen, is making final preparations for her plunge into the heart of South America for the purpose of studying the Tapirape Indians. (International Newsreel)

As Seen in San Francisco

Between 11 A. M. and 1 P. M., Pacific standard time, practically 99 per cent of the citizenry of San Francisco, Cal., saw this sight as the moon finished its game of hide and seek with the sun and prepared to hide itself away. In this picture the famous American Telephone Building is silhouetted against the false twilight. (International Newsreel)

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today

WCCO

5:00 p. m.—The Captivators.
5:55 p. m.—Road Conditions Bulletin and Mpls. Star News Story.
6:00 p. m.—Dinner Concert—Wesley Barlow's Orchestra.
6:25 p. m.—World Book Man.
6:30 p. m.—Fireside Philosophies—Rev. Roy L. Smith of Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis.
6:45 p. m.—Dixie Echoes.
7:00 p. m.—Hank Simmons Showboat.
8:00 p. m.—Paramount Public Hour.
9:00 p. m.—Hotel Paramount Orchestra.
9:30 p. m.—Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians.
10:00 p. m.—Weather Report.
10:05 p. m.—Dance Program—Dick Long's Orchestra.
11:05 p. m.—Minneapolis Arena.
11:35 p. m.—Hotel Lowry Night Club Program with Eddie Dunstetter and his Orchestra.

KSTP

6:00 p. m.—Gene and Glenn and the Puritan Maid.
6:30 p. m.—Del Monte Products.
7:00 p. m.—General Electric Symphony.
8:00 p. m.—Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra.
9:00 p. m.—Musical Feature.
9:30 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
9:45 p. m.—Floyd Gibbons.
10:05 p. m.—Rudy Vallee and his Orchestra.
11:01 p. m.—Uncle Josh and his Huskies.
11:30 p. m.—Athletic Club Orchestra.
11:45 p. m.—Casino Orchestra.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight Club.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1930 by United Press
WABC CBS Network, 4:30 p. m.—Husing Sportsants.
WEAF NBC Network, 5 p. m.—Floyd Williams.
WEAF NBC Network, 6:30 p. m.—Del Monte Program.
WEAF NBC Network, 7 p. m.—General Electric Hour.
WJZ NBC Network, 7:15 p. m.—Cub Reporter.

Sunday

WCCO

9:45 a. m.—First Trinity Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, Rev. Julius Huchthausen, Pastor.
10:50 a. m.—Westminster Presbyterian church, Minneapolis, Rev. John E. Bushnell, D. D., pastor.
12:30 p. m.—Ballad Hour.
1:00 p. m.—Columbia Male Chorus.
1:30 p. m.—Conclave of Nations.
2:00 p. m.—Cathedral Hour.
3:00 p. m.—Quiet Harmonies.
4:30 p. m.—House of Hope Presbyterian Church, St. Paul.
5:30 p. m.—Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Minneapolis.
6:45 p. m.—Around the Samovar.
7:00 p. m.—Majestic Theatre of the Air.
8:00 p. m.—Squibb's Program.
8:30 p. m.—Bardell Oil Co.
9:00 p. m.—Veelol Orchestra.
9:30 p. m.—Musical Program.
10:00 p. m.—Weather Report.
10:05 p. m.—Coral Islanders.
10:30 p. m.—Midnight Melodies.

KSTP

12:00 m.—Roxy Symphony.
1:00 p. m.—Dr. Francis Richter—Organ Concert.
2:00 p. m.—Sunshine Boys and the Beachcombers.
3:00 p. m.—Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick.
4:00 p. m.—Catholic Religious Hour.
5:00 p. m.—Los Argentinos.
5:30 p. m.—Capitol Theatre Family.
5:55 p. m.—Baseball Scores.
6:00 p. m.—Enna Jettick Melodies.
6:15 p. m.—KSTP Players.
6:30 p. m.—Chase & Sanborn Choral Orchestra.
7:00 p. m.—Garrott's Chocolaters.
7:15 p. m.—Atwater Kent Concert.
8:15 p. m.—Studebaker Champions.
8:45 p. m.—Sunday Evening at Seth Parker's.
9:15 p. m.—Russian Cathedral Choir.
9:30 p. m.—First National Bank Hour.
10:05 p. m.—Organ Concert—Classical to Jazz.
11:01 p. m.—Gody Bowen's Orchestra.
11:30 p. m.—Frank Cotter's Orchestra.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1930 by United Press
WJZ NBC Network, 6:15 p. m.—Collier's Hour.
WABC CBS Network, 7 p. m.—Majestic Air Theatre.
WEAF NBC Network, 7:15 p. m.—Atwater Kent Hour.
WJZ NBC Network, 8:15 p. m.—National Oratorio.
WABC CBS Network, 10 p. m.—Coral Islanders.

Monday

WCCO

6:30 a. m.—Time Signal Program.
8:30 a. m.—News Bulletin.
8:45 a. m.—Market Reports and New York Stock Exchange.
9:30 a. m.—New Rugs for Old.
9:35 a. m.—Bohn Refrigerator Special.
10:10 a. m.—Nationwide Voice of Montgomery Ward & Co.
10:15 a. m.—Witt's Cooking School of the Air.
10:30 a. m.—Weather and Market Reports; New York Stock Exchange.

10:50 a. m.—Myndall Cain's Lessons in Feminine Loveliness.
11:00 a. m.—Purity Maid Program.
11:10 a. m.—Gardner Nursery.
11:15 a. m.—Yoen's Orchestra.
11:30 a. m.—Harold Stern and Ambassador Orchestra.
11:45 a. m.—Minnesota Police Association Bulletin.
11:55 a. m.—Ole the Trapper.
12:00 m.—Columbia Farm Community Network.
12:25 p. m.—Jim Deeds of Gold Medal Feeds.
12:50 p. m.—Maple Dale Chix.
1:05 p. m.—Livestock Market Summary; Weather and Market Reports.
1:30 p. m.—Hamline Radio University.
1:45 p. m.—Women's Forum.
2:00 p. m.—New York Stock Exchange.
2:05 p. m.—American Fantasy.
3:00 p. m.—Baseball Game—Minneapolis vs. Louisville.
5:00 p. m.—Current Events.
5:40 p. m.—Road Conditions Bulletin.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock Market Summary.
5:55 p. m.—Baseball Scores and Mpls. Star News Story.
6:00 p. m.—Henry-George.
6:30 p. m.—Ceco Couriers.
7:00 p. m.—Musical Program.
7:30 p. m.—Evening in Paris.
8:30 p. m.—Gold Strand Crusaders.
9:00 p. m.—Hamline University Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Hotel Paramount Orchestra.
10:00 p. m.—Weather Report and Baseball Scores.
10:05 p. m.—Musical Program.
10:15 p. m.—Talk by Claude R. May, Candidate for St. Paul Councilman.
10:30 p. m.—Frank McInerney and Fred Lundberg, the Politicians.
10:50 p. m.—Midnight Melodies.
11:00 p. m.—Dick Long's Dance Orchestra.

KSTP

6:00 p. m.—Voice of Firestone.
6:30 p. m.—Mac and Al—The McAleer Boys.
6:45 p. m.—WLE Program.
7:00 p. m.—Ted Fiorito and Orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—General Motors Family Party.
8:00 p. m.—Stromberg Carlson Hour.
8:30 p. m.—Empire Builders.
9:00 p. m.—Seeger Melody Musketeers.
9:30 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
9:45 p. m.—Floyd Gibbons.
10:00 p. m.—Weather; Baseball Scores.
10:15 p. m.—Cleveland Hughes Male Quartet.
10:35 p. m.—Dan Russo and his Orchestra.
11:01 p. m.—Vaudeville Hour.
12:00 p. m.—Dance Feature.
Five Best Features
Copyright 1930 by United Press
WJZ NBC Network, 4 p. m.—Mormon Choir.
WABC CBS Network, 6 p. m.—Henry and George.
WEAF NBC Network, 7:30 p. m.—G. M. Family Party.
WEAF NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Sign of Shell.
WABC CBS Network, 9 p. m.—The Columbians.

Love Welds All Together

Love is the fusing element of all life; the tremulous, softly defined horizon-line that at once separates and unites the spheres, terminating our human vision; the trysting-place where earth and heaven meet.—Lucy Larcom.

Start of Pony Express

The first announcement of the formation of the Pony express, one of the most spectacular institutions of the old days of this country, was made in March, 1860.

New NICOLLET HOTEL
"At the Gateway" of Minneapolis
NICOLLET-WASHINGTON
HENNIPIN AVENUES
—600—
First Class Rooms
AND
Three Restaurants
at MODERATE RATES
Excellent Food
Courteous Service
Central Location
W. B. CLARK, MANAGER
Home of WCCO Studios
GOOD BEDS
YOU SLEEP
IN COMFORT

Try a Dispatch
Want Ad
For Best Selling
Results

B. H. S. WINS AITKIN INVITATIONAL TRACK, FIELD MEET

BASEBALL NOW BECOMES COMPETITOR OF THEATER

SCORE HIGHEST IN COMPETITION WITH OTHER HIGH SCHOOLS

HOFFBAUER AND E. FOSTER SET NEW RECORDS IN LOW HURDLES, JAVELIN

ABRAHAMSON TIED WITH COX, PINE RIVER, FOR NEW HIGH JUMP RECORD

Brainerd high school won the Third Annual Aitkin Invitation Track and Field meet at Aitkin Friday and established three new records for the invitational meet.

The Brainerd athletes, 13 in number, under direction of Coach Warren E. Kasch, competed with Aitkin, Pine River, Grand Rapids, Crosby-Ironton, Little Falls, Mora and Riverton.

Little Falls scored second and Crosby-Ironton third. The range school won the meet last year while Aitkin took the meet two years ago.

Brainerd took first in javelin, 220 yards low hurdles, tying for first in high jump and setting new records in these divisions. The Brainerd school also topped second in javelin, 120 yards high hurdles, pole vault, 440 yard dash, 220 yard low hurdles and third in the 220 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 880 yard relay and discus.

John Hoffbauer, Jr., Brainerd, went over the low hurdles for Brainerd in the record time of 29.1 seconds for the 220 yards.

Elmer Foster, Brainerd, threw the javelin a distance of 151 feet 4 inches for the new record while his brother Bernard took second place.

Abrahamson, Brainerd, and Cox, Pine River, split honors in high jump setting a new record of 5 feet 8 inches.

Cox of Pine River got credit for a second record by going over the high hurdles in 19 seconds and Bigalke of Little Falls broke former records in the 440 yard dash, his time being 55.3 seconds.

Records were also broken by Monkanen, Crosby-Ironton, in pole vault and by C. I. in relay.

Brainerd entered the meet as a darkhorse and became a threat from the first event.

Results of the Aitkin meet follow:
220 Yard Dash
First—Brushwiler, Little Falls.
Second—Petraborg, Crosby-Ironton.
Third—Schuety, Brainerd.
Time—24.3. New record.

Shot Put
First—Hovey, Aitkin.
Second—LaFond, Little Falls.
Third—LaFrenier, Grand Rapids.
Distance—39 feet, 9 inches. Record standing 44 feet.

Discus
First—Hovey, Aitkin.
Second—LaFrenier, Grand Rapids.
Third—B. Foster, Brainerd.
Distance—107 feet. Record standing, 108 feet, 9 inches.

Javelin
First—E. Foster, Brainerd.
Second—B. Foster, Brainerd.
Third—Krueger, Crosby-Ironton.
Distance—151 feet, 4 inches. New record.

100 Yard Dash
First—Brushwiler, Little Falls.
Second—Petraborg, Crosby-Ironton.
Third—Schuety, Brainerd.
Time—11.1 seconds. Record standing, 11 seconds.

880 Yards
First—Hughes, Little Falls.
Second—Van Evera, Crosby-Ironton.
Third—Wills, Aitkin.
Time—2 minutes, 18.9 seconds. Record standing, 2:18 1-4.

120 Yards High Hurdles
First—Cox, Pine River.
Second—Hoffbauer, Brainerd.
Third—Morris, Grand Rapids.
Time—19 seconds. New record.

440 Yard Dash
First—Bigalke, Little Falls.
Second—Lammon, Brainerd.
Third—Nelson, Riverton.
Time—55.3 seconds. New record.

Pole Vault
First—Monkanen, Crosby-Ironton.
Second—Abrahamson, Brainerd.
Third—Martini, Pine River.
Height—10 feet, 9 inches. New record.

220 Yard Low Hurdles
First—Hoffbauer, Brainerd.
Second—Hautala, Brainerd.
Third—Brown, Aitkin, Clute, Little Falls.
Time—29.1 seconds. New record.

High Jump
First—Cox, Pine River; Abrahamson, Brainerd, tied.
Third—Nickander, Aitkin.
Height—5 feet, 8 inches. New record.

Broad Jump
First—Clute, Little Falls.
Second—Nickander, Aitkin.
Third—Hoolihan.
Distance—19 feet, 4 inches. Record standing, 20 feet, 4 inches.

880 Yard Relay
First—Crosby-Ironton.
Second—Little Falls.
Third—Brainerd.
Time—1:42.1. New record.

Brainerd will engage Little Falls in a dual at Little Falls on May 10 and will participate in the district meet at Little Falls on May 17.

Brainerd was represented in the relay by Hoffbauer, Herman, Garvey and Lammon.

Philadelphia Led
Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular site, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

GRIFFITHS WINS

Tuffy Griffiths won the decision in his rematch April 30 at the Chicago Stadium against Jack Gagnon, but he was forced hard in a rough scuffle. This picture shows Tuffy blocking a left in the third round as Referee Ed Purdy watches.

1,000 TRACK AND FIELD ATHLETES GATHER

CARRY COLORS OF 55 EASTERN AND MIDWESTERN UNIVERSITIES AT COLUMBUS, O.

OPEN ATTACK ON CINDER PATH RECORDS IN FINAL DAY OF OHIO RELAYS

Ohio Stadium, Columbus, O., May 3.—(UP)—More than 1,000 track and field celebrities, carrying the colors of 55 eastern and midwestern universities, today opened their attack on cinder path records in the final day of the seventh annual Ohio relays.

A fast track coupled with favorable wind conditions heralded serious contention against former records.

The east is represented by strong relay teams which seek revenge for the overwhelming defeat at the hands of midwestern schools last year when Chicago, Illinois, Purdue and Ohio State captured first honors in all seven relay events.

Three of last year's winners, Ohio, Illinois and Chicago, are back again with powerful quarters and are strong favorites in the quarter, half mile and mile events.

Ohio State's speed demon, George Simpson will defend his 1929 title in the special 300-yard dash against a select field of starters in what is expected to furnish the feature race of the day. Simpson won in 9.5 seconds last year.

A capable field of weight men will vie for triathlon honors. Anderson, Cornell, won the event last year amassing 2,592 points.

Outstanding on the yesterday's opening day program was the performance of Johnny Wonsowicz, Gary, Indiana high school youth who set a new national interscholastic pole vault record. He cleared the bar at 13 feet 4 inches, topping the former record by 13-16 of an inch.

Another feature of the interscholastic division was the mile relay for preparatory schools won by Newark, N. J., in the record-breaking time of 3 minutes 26.7 seconds, which also stands as a national interscholastic record.

TODAY'S GAMES

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Chicago.....000 100
New York.....022 100
Batteries—McKain and Autry—Hoyt and Dickey.

Detroit.....163 010 00
Philadelphia.....260 091 00
Batteries—Carroll and Hargrave; Farnshaw and Cochrane.

Cleveland.....200 000 0
Boston.....093 000 0
Batteries—Jahonowski and L. Sewell; Russell and Berry.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Boston.....500 010
Pittsburgh.....610 000
Batteries—Grimes and Cronin; Swetonic and Hargreaves.

New York.....100
Cincinnati.....000
Batteries—Genewich and Hogan; McWeeny and Gooch.

Philadelphia.....000 0
Chicago.....000 0
Batteries—Elliott and McCurdy; Root and Hartnett.

GAINS MONEY

AFTER SUN GOES DOWN FOR DAY

NIGHT BASEBALL WAS INAUGURATED SUCCESSFULLY AT DES MOINES

DES MOINES CLUB OF WESTERN LEAGUE DEFEATS WICHITA 13 TO 6

Des Moines, Ia., May 3.—(UP)—America's most popular pastime—baseball—had become a competitor of the theatre, the boxing ring and the ball room today in the race for amusement dollars that are spent after the sun goes down.

While prominent figures in the baseball and electrical world watched the spectacle, night baseball was inaugurated last night when the Des Moines club of Western league defeated Wichita, 13 to 6.

A record breaking throng watched the players of the two games perform under the brilliant flood of light radiated from a plant of more than 40,000, 000 candle power of artificial illumination. The six electric beacons surrounding the playing field paled a bright summer moon into insignificance without dazzling the players.

Even when the batters lifted the ball high in the air the light cast by the beacons enabled the fans to watch its path.

Across the infield the brightest lights were focused and at home plate, the batter, catcher and the umpire were directly between two of the giant beacons, each of which was topped with a myriad of flood lights. So penetrating was the light that each of the trio cast two distinct shadows, one on each side.

It was the opinion of sport notables who attended the game, that the first official league baseball game at night was a huge success. They predicted that the experiment would extend to other minor league cities within the near future with major league club owners adopting the plan should it continue to be as satisfactory as it was last night.

FLOWERS AND BILL CISELL SETTING PACE

FLOWERS LEADS NATIONAL LEAGUE SWATSMITHS WITH AVERAGE OF .469

CISELL TOPS AMERICAN LEAGUE WITH A .432 AVERAGE GAINED

By Dixon Stewart
United Press Staff Correspondent

New York, May 3.—(UP)—Two second basemen—Jake Flowers of Brooklyn and Bill Cissell of the Chicago White Sox—are setting the pace for batters in the major leagues. Figures compiled by Al Munro Elias, including games of Thursday, May 1, show Flowers leading the National league swatsmiths with an average of .469 and Cissell topping the American league with a .432 average.

Lefty O'Doul of the Phillies and Lew Fonseca of Cleveland, 1929 batting champions, were far down the list. O'Doul stood fourteenth among the National league hitters with a .368 mark and Fonseca's .355 gave him eleventh place in the American league.

The league leading Pittsburgh Pirates topped the National league clubs in team batting with a percentage of .331 and Cleveland led the American league with .301.

Cincinnati's eighth place Reds and the New York Giants were tied for National league batting honors with identical averages of .451. The St. Louis Browns headed the American league with a .381 percentage.

Travis Jackson of the New York Giants topped both leagues in home runs with five circuit blows, while Al Simmons of the Athletics and Carl Reynolds of the White Sox led the American league with four each.

Clinton Brown, Cleveland rookie, showed the way for American league pitchers with 3 wins and no defeats, while Kremer and French of Pittsburgh, Fitzsimmons of the Giants and Ben Frey, Cincinnati recruit, headed the National league with two wins and no defeats each.

STANDINGS OF CLUBS

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Louisville.....11 4 733
St. Paul.....7 5 583
Toledo.....7 6 538
Columbus.....8 7 533
Indianapolis.....6 6 500
Kansas City.....6 7 462
Milwaukee.....6 8 429
Minneapolis.....4 12 259

Yesterday's Results
Indianapolis 6, St. Paul 7, (11 innings.)
Louisville 15, Minneapolis 6.
Columbus 1, Milwaukee 2.
Toledo 4, Kansas City 6.

Games Today
Indianapolis at St. Louis.
Louisville at Minneapolis.

Toledo at Kansas City.
Columbus at Milwaukee.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	11	3	.786
Cleveland	9	4	.692
Chicago	7	4	.636
Philadelphia	8	5	.615
St. Louis	6	8	.429
Boston	5	9	.357
Detroit	5	12	.294
New York	3	9	.250

Yesterday's Results

Cleveland 8, Boston 3.
Chicago 10, New York 1.
Detroit 4, Philadelphia 9.
St. Louis 5, Washington 13.
Games Today
St. Louis at Washington.
Detroit at Philadelphia.
Chicago at New York.
Cleveland at Boston.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	10	4	.714
New York	7	4	.636
Chicago	9	8	.529
Boston	6	6	.500
Brooklyn	6	7	.462
St. Louis	6	9	.400
Philadelphia	5	8	.385
Cincinnati	5	8	.385

Yesterday's Results

Boston 2, Pittsburgh 3.
New York 8, Cincinnati 9.
Philadelphia 8, Chicago 11.
Brooklyn 8, St. Louis 4.
Games Today
Boston at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Chicago.
New York at Cincinnati.

Colder Spots in Refrigerator

Some sections of the household refrigerator are colder than others. Locate and reserve these for meat, milk and other exceptionally perishable foods, advises the United States bureau of home economics.

FAST STEPPING

OPPOSITION NOW FACING LEADERS

PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS AND CHICAGO CUBS WERE PRE-SEASON FAVORITES

ATHLETICS, 4TH IN AMERICAN LEAGUE RACE, DEFEATING ALL EXCEPT SENATORS

By United Press

Philadelphia's Athletics and the Chicago Cubs, pre-season pennant favorites, were faced with the difficult task of overtaking fast stepping opposition as major league teams continued interseasonal competition today.

The Athletics, fourth in the American league, two and one-half games behind Washington, have been able to defeat all opponents except the Senators, who handed them 4 of their 5 defeats, and remain the popular choice for American league honors.

Absence of Rogers Hornsby and Lester Bell in early season games handicapped the Cubs but with these stars back in the game the Chicagoans are playing improved ball and are conceding a good change to overhaul their rivals. The Cubs are in third place two and one-half games behind the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Joe Cronin led the Washington Senators to a 13 to 5 win over the St. Louis Browns Friday. He connected for two doubles, a triple and a single in 5 times at bat, driving 4 runs and scoring 4 himself.

Although he allowed his old teammates 15 hits, Hal Carlson pitched the Chicago Cubs to an 11 to 8 victory over the Phillies. The two teams made 29 hits, including 10 doubles and 2 home-runs.

Jess Petty's courageous relief pitching gave Pittsburgh a 3 to 2 triumph over the Boston Braves.

The New York Giants lost their fourth consecutive game and the National league lead, dropping a 9 to 8 contest to the Cincinnati Reds. The Reds pounded Fred Fitzsimmons and Ralph Judd for 7 runs in the second inning.

Rube Walberg let the Detroit Tigers down with 7 hits and his mates, led by Miller, Fox and Simmons clubbed out a 9 to 2 win.

Brooklyn scored the east's only victory, in the National league, defeating St. Louis 8 to 4. It was William Watson Clark's first victory in four starts.

Ted Lyons of the Chicago White Sox turned in his third victory of the year, 10 to 1, allowing the New York Yankees only 6 hits. Red Clancy, substitute first baseman, drove in 6 runs with two homers, a triple and a single.

Wesley Ferrell pitched the Cleveland Indians to an easy 8 to 3 win over the Boston Red Sox.

Seven home-runs were hit in the 8 games, Clancy getting two and Toddy of the Red Sox, Terry of the Giants, Klein and Sigman of the Phillies and Bissonette of the Robins one each.

RUTH'S 16 HITS THIS SEASON COST YANKS $389.44 EACH

New York, May 3.—(UP)—Babe Ruth's 16 hits this season have cost the New York Yankees $389.44 per blow. The big slugger, who is being paid $80,000 per season—or $519.42 for each of the 154 games on the schedule—has earned $6,231.04 in his first 12 games.

Those Brittle Baseballers

By HARDIN BURNLEY

SCORES OF BALL-PLAYERS ARE ON THE SHELF THIS SPRING WITH AILMENTS RANGING FROM HOUSE-MAID'S KNEE TO WRITER'S CRAMP.. BUT-- YOU HAVE TO ALMOST KILL A HOCKEY PLAYER OR A GRID WARRIOR TO KEEP HIM OUT OF THE GAME --!

BASEBALL is not a particularly rough game, yet it seems to produce more annoying temporary injuries than all other major sports combined.

Reports annually from Spring training camps and tours are studded with "Ruth Springs Charley Horse"; "Famous Star Wrenches Ankle, Will Be Out of Game for Weeks"; etc., etc. All sorts of ills beset diamond twinklers throughout the season. Twisted muscles, jizzed-up joints, sore feet, bruised fingers and what-not keep club physicians busy almost every day and confine players to the bench with surprising frequency.

Is it a gag—a sickness complex—or laziness that can be blamed for so much fragility among the baseballers?

In most instances—no; but in many, there's much doubt as to just how crippling such injuries are. Of course, those in charge of costly players are fearful lest slight hurts become worse and so managers are lenient (or merely wise, perhaps) in permitting ailing stars to take plenty of "time out."

The team bosses depend on the judgment of their club physicians in such cases. After all, there may be little real malingering—in other words, so-called "soldiering"—on the part of many players; but it does seem strange that "cripples" in baseball are more numerous than those in football and hockey. By "cripples," we refer specifically to the "slight injuries" cases that keep stars out of action for more or less long "convalescent" periods.

On the rink or gridiron, for instance, it almost requires the use of crutches to keep a star out of play. Iowa's great Willis Glasgow, a wonderful back, played dazzling football last Fall with a cheek-bone broken by a special leather mask. Hundreds of similar cases fill grid annals.

At hockey, "Ching" Johnson of the Rangers wore a headgear last Winter to cover a cruel hurt.

If a baseball star suffered such injuries, any Sport Bug knows that such victims would get plenty of rest during most of the season. For they are indeed careful of the hired help in that baseball bush-ness! Yes, indeed!!

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

Mary Graham Bonner

DANUBE'S NICE LIFE

David wandered down through Czechoslovakia, remembering the dishes that had been brought from this country to the banquet, and he remembered, too, how the City of Prague had looked in the parade. He passed many farms, and to the right he saw a sign which pointed to the Carpathian Mountains, and there was another sign pointing to the north, which said: "Beds of coal and iron. Choose your bed."

David went on wandering, down through Hungary, and here the rivers and the gentle valley sisters were making mud pies and boasting of their rich farming lands. Hungary seemed to be so comfortable, lying in the very heart of a valley, and as he thought how pleasant it all seemed he heard a voice speaking to him.

"I'm the River Danube," the voice said.

"Oh, hello, Danube," David answered, as he went in the direction of the voice, and there he beheld the Danube, which had a certain family resemblance to other rivers he had met.

Danube was singing to himself, but he stopped his song for a moment and asked David to wander along with him.

"You've been wandering and I've been wandering, and we might as well both wander together," Danube said. "I'm a great one for wandering."

"So am I," said David, "and all the members of your family I've met have told me they never wanted to settle down in one place."

"Settle down in one place? I should say not," Danube exclaimed. "Why, a river wouldn't be a river if it should do that. And a river must be a river if it's to be a river."

"Yes, I suppose it must," David agreed.

"I'm as fond of wandering as any fonder of it than most. There's Volga, who is longer than I am, but I am of more account as I go through these important countries and have so much business all of the time."

"What are your homes like?" David asked.

"Oh, I've so many," Danube answered. "I begin in the Black Forest

The Gypsy Band Was Playing.

In Germany. That's my first home. Then I don't want to spend all my time there, so I go on through Austria, passing through Vienna. I go by the Czechoslovak port of Bratislava, and then I take a good look at Hungary, as you see. I pass Budapest, and I go through Yugoslavia, passing Belgrade. I wander along the Bulgarian-Rumanian frontier for quite a long distance and then I go right through Rumania into the Black Sea."

"I know the Black Sea," David announced.

"Well, we're a mutual friend, then," Danube answered, and it seemed strange to David to think of talking of a sea as a mutual friend.

"One of my favorite homes is at Budapest, the capital of Hungary. Wander along with me and have a look."

So along wandered David beside the Danube river, and they came to Budapest, through which the Danube flowed.

"In the old days," Danube explained, "they used to call Budapest two cities. One was named Buda, and it has mineral springs and was famous as a health resort in the time of the Romans, while Pest is more modern. Of course, I still divide the two, but they call it all one city now. Sleepy? Have I talked too much? I've so much more to say, too."

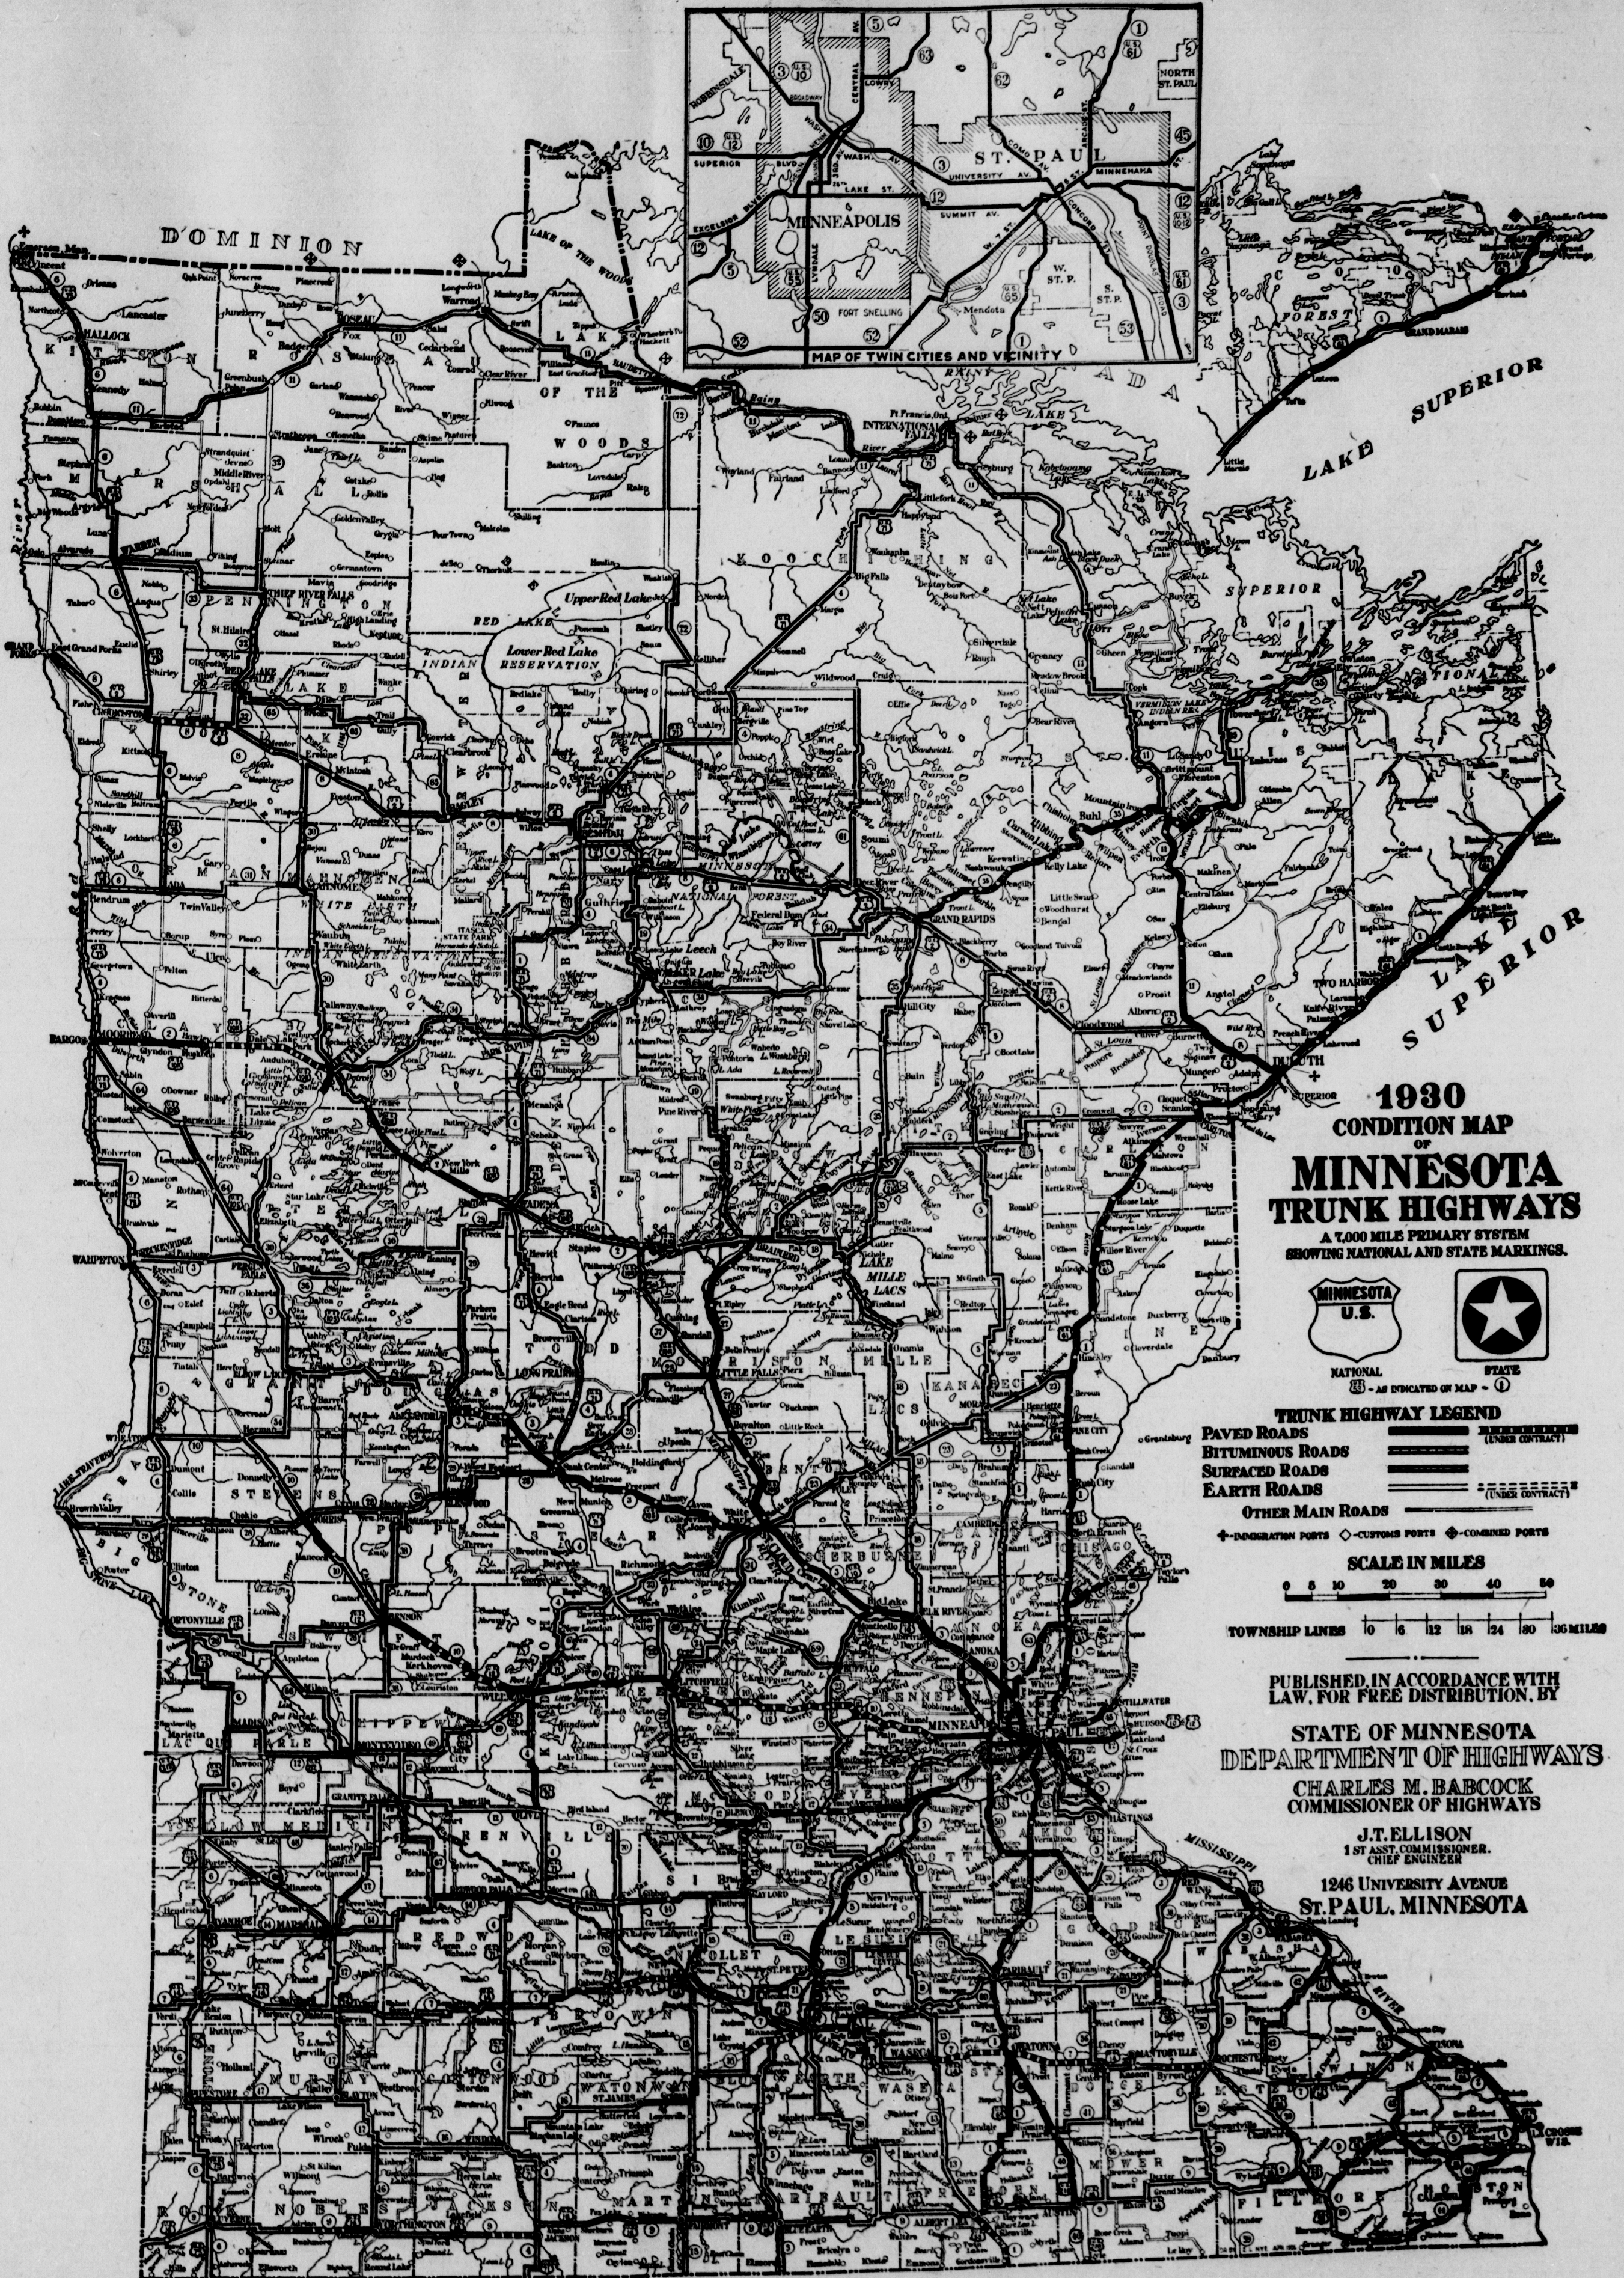

Danube looked a little sad. His water was quite yellow and he made David feel anything but wide awake. David didn't seem to hear him talk any more. He heard instead reedy horns and violins and a drum and a band, and then he saw gypsies in the distance, who said:

"Take a rest, David. Wanderers should be lazy, too."

So David rested. And again it seemed as though he heard the singing of the Danube, running swiftly along. Yes, he was too weary to keep up with the Danube now, and the gypsy band was playing old folk songs, bright marches, wild, sweet tunes.

Is No More

The little girl had been visiting. When it was time for her to be going home, her hostess said: "Good-by, Marjorie; you must come again soon. We should like to see more of you." "But there isn't any more of me," replied Marjorie.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

By Mary Graham Bonner

DANUBE'S NICE LIFE

David wandered down through Czechoslovakia, remembering the dishes that had been brought from this country to the banquet, and he remembered, too, how the City of Prague had looked in the parade. He passed many farms, and to the right he saw a sign which pointed to the Carpathian Mountains, and there was another sign pointing to the north, which said: "Beds of coal and iron. Choose your bed."

David went on wandering, down through Hungary, and here the rivers and the gentle valley sisters were making mud pies and boasting of their rich farming lands. Hungary seemed to be so comfortable, lying in the very heart of a valley, and as he thought how pleasant it all seemed he heard a voice speaking to him.

"I'm the River Danube," the voice said.

"Oh, hello, Danube," David answered, as he went in the direction of the voice, and there he beheld the Danube, which had a certain family resemblance to other rivers he had met.

Danube was singing to himself, but he stopped his song after a moment and asked David to wander along with him.

"You've been wandering and I've been wandering, and we might as well both wander together," Danube said. "I'm a great one for wandering."

"So am I," said David, "and all the members of your family I've met have told me they never wanted to settle down in one place."

"Settle down in one place? I should say not," Danube exclaimed. "Why, a river wouldn't be a river if it should do that. And a river must be a river if it's to be a river."

"Yes, I suppose it must," David agreed.

"I'm as fond of wandering as any fonder of it than most. There's Volga, who is longer than I am, but I am of more account as I go through these important countries and have so much business all of the time."

"What are your homes like?" David asked.

"Oh, I've so many," Danube answered. "I begin in the Black Forest

The Gypsy Band Was Playing.

In Germany. That's my first home. Then I don't want to spend all my time there, so I go on through Austria, passing through Vienna. I go by the Czechoslovak port of Bratislava, and then I take a good look at Hungary, as you see. I pass Budapest, and I go through Yugoslavia, passing Belgrade. I wander along the Bulgarian-Rumanian frontier for quite a long distance and then I go right through Rumania into the Black Sea."

"I know the Black Sea," David announced.

"Well, we've a mutual friend, then," Danube answered, and it seemed strange to David to think of talking of a sea as a mutual friend.

"One of my favorite homes is at Budapest, the capital of Hungary. Wander along with me and have a look."

So along wandered David beside the Danube river, and they came to Budapest, through which the Danube flowed.

"In the old days," Danube explained, "they used to call Budapest two cities. One was named Buda, and it has mineral springs and was famous as a health resort in the time of the Romans, while Pest is more modern. Of course, I still divide the two, but they call it all one city now. Sleepy? Have I talked too much? I've so much more to say, too."

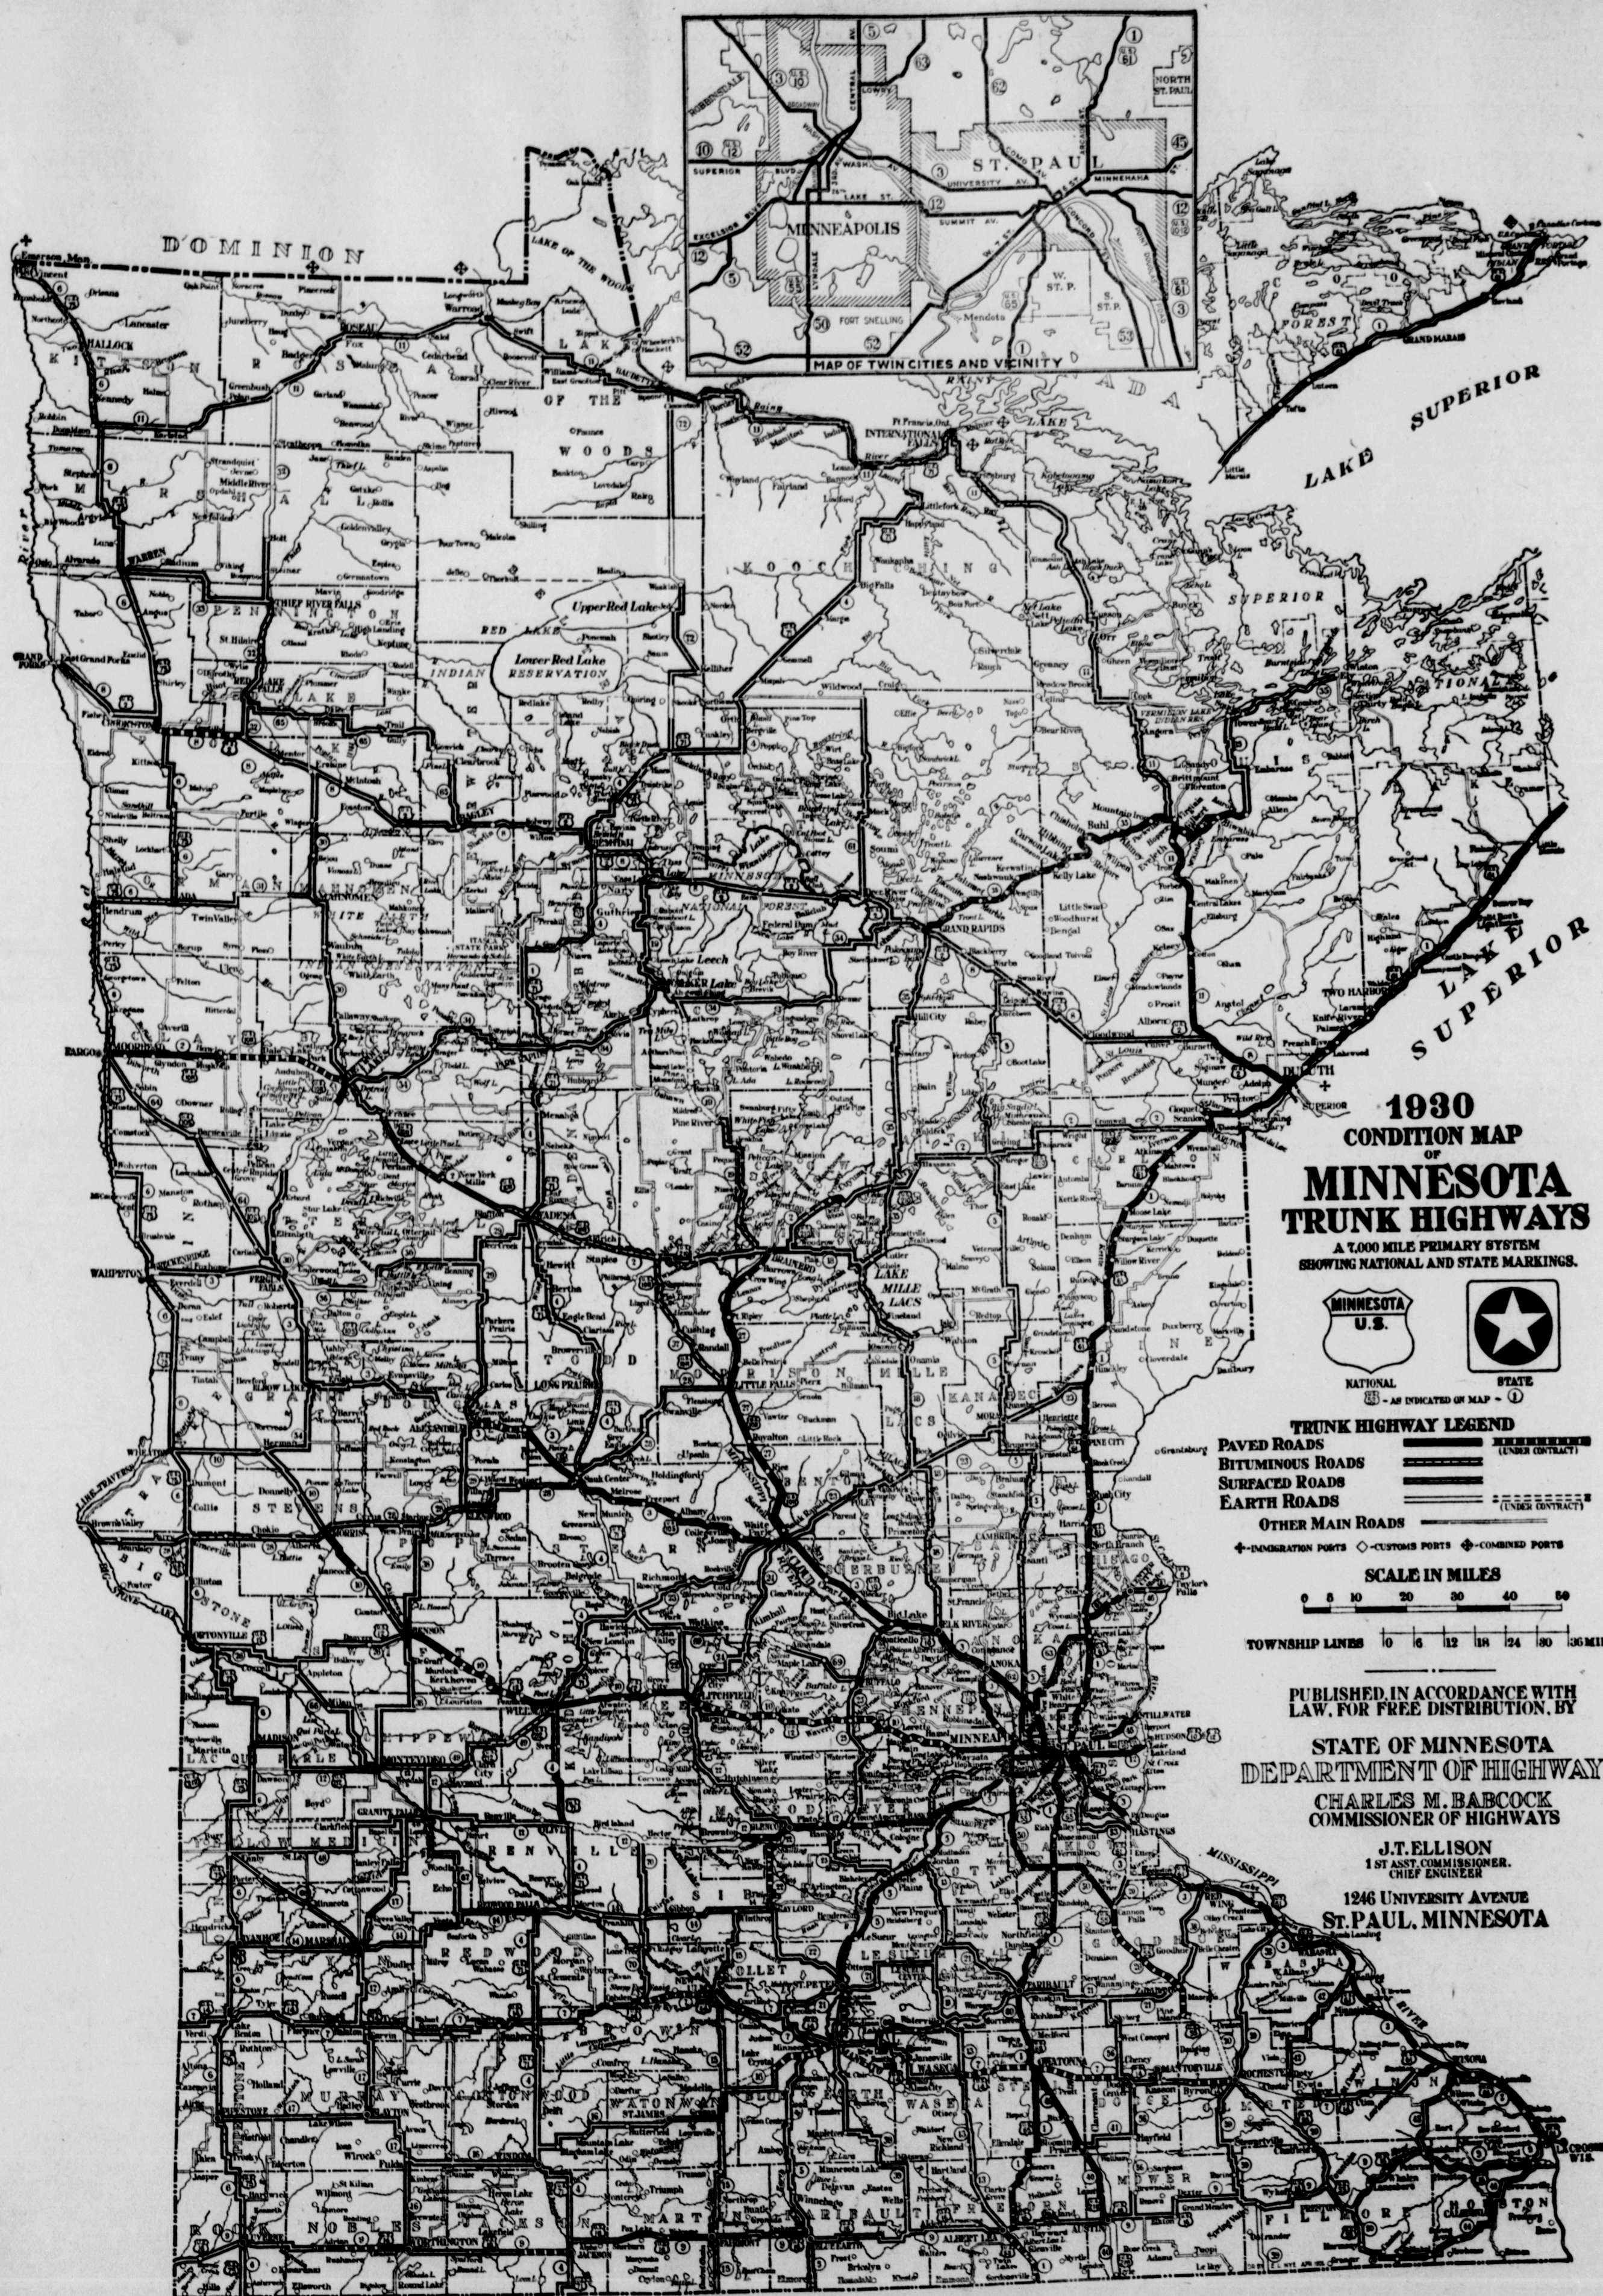

Danube looked a little sad. His water was quite yellow and he made David feel anything but wide awake. David didn't seem to hear him talk any more. He heard instead reedy horns and violins and a drum and a band, and then he saw gypsies in the distance, who said:

"Take a rest, David. Wanderers should be lazy, too."

So David rested. And again it seemed as though he heard the singing of the Danube, running swiftly along. Yes, he was too weary to keep up with the Danube now, and the gypsy band was playing old folk songs, bright marches, wild, sweet tunes.

Is No More

The little girl had been visiting. When it was time for her to be going home, her hostess said: "Good-by, Marjorie; you must come again soon. We should like to see more of you." "But there isn't any more of me," replied Marjorie.

"SHEIK'S WIFE"

BY WINIFRED VAN DUZER

WHAT HAS HAPPENED THUS FAR.

YOUNG and unsophisticated Eve Reade meets Kenneth Wilmer, noted artist. They fall in love. Eve's friend, Mary, tries to convince her the match is unsuitable. Ken introduces Eve to his unconventional artist colony set. When Ken leaves a party with Fifi Devoe, Eve is hurt. Nory O'Rell, author friend of Ken's also interested in Eve, drives her to Fifi's. Ken is there and rushes to Eve, telling of his longing for her. After painting Eve the next day, Ken gives a party. Eve is thrilled when Ken and Nory toast her. The first misunderstanding comes when Eve tells of meeting Nory and his tea party. Ken is jealous. They make up and all goes well, until the next get-together, when in a discussion on marriage, Ken calls it "shackles." Eve is disappointed, and that night tells him it is "good-bye." Unable to stand the separation, Eve goes to Ken. He is overjoyed and proposes marriage, explaining his opinion did not apply to them. Eve is blue when Nory leaves for New York without wishing her happiness. She and Ken visit Eve's relatives in Lakeview.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XVII.

THAT sweetly solemn day when October was to fling gay banners into the sky and Eve was to walk up the aisle of the country church—to move to the majestic strains of Lohengrin straight into the arms of Ken—that day never came. As Eve had dreamed it, so it remained an exquisite dream.

For she was married in Haverford. And in June. Without rose-point or ivory satin or music or attendants.

But after the few words that made her Ken's wife he held her close, whispering, "Do you mind, sweetheart? Giving up so much—I shouldn't have asked this—"

And she whispered back, quivering with rapture, "It's what I wanted Ken—truly—oh, Ken, I'm so happy!"

And she meant it then, with all her heart. But in a future hour she was to realize how deep had been her disappointment and to feel a haunting regret that her day of days had turned out to be, as she thought of it then, the strangest of a girl ever had.

Of course it all came about because of Ken's moody impatience and his strange shyness. "Lots of people know my stuff, sweetheart. There'll be reporters up there and cameramen. A movie outfit called up the other day and wanted to take a picture of the ceremony."

"Ken! What did you tell them?" "Plenty. I never thought much about it before, but I guess the wise ones are those that slip away and get married without saying anything in advance. I don't suppose," he asked tentatively, "you'd think it all right if we put it over right here? We could have the club house and a dinner for the gang afterward."

"Oh, Ken!" Rose-point, Lohengrin, Uncle Mat giving the bride away—all the lovely dreams vanishing.

He said no more, but as the weeks went along Eve could see he was disturbed. He spent a great deal of time at the Stewarts' and the editor of "Sky Lines," the magazine for which he did most of his work, began to bother. For Ken, always late with his pictures, now would go for days without touching brush or crayon.

He said no more, but as the weeks went along Eve could see he was disturbed. He spent a great deal of time at the Stewarts' and the editor of "Sky Lines," the magazine for which he did most of his work, began to bother. For Ken, always late with his pictures, now would go for days without touching brush or crayon.

Mary finally told Eve that she ought to do something about it. "After all you've got to think of his welfare, dear. He's an overgrown child, really, but you're taking him as he is. I'm afraid life won't be too easy for you. Still that won't matter if you love him enough."

"Oh, I do! But my beautiful wedding—well—"

"A wedding is a wedding. Eve. And you'll be giving up most of the things Lakeview stands for when you marry Ken and settle down in The Lane."

Mary had not thought of this before; the "whether thou goest I will go" and they people shall be my people" idea came to her with a shock. A different life from the one she always had looked forward to opened before her if she married Ken; she would find herself in perplexing and perhaps dangerous ways unless she was very careful, very wise.

She meant to make a success of her marriage. She meant to help Ken, see that he achieved the fine heights of his aspirations. Of course it would mean sacrifice. And perhaps the matter of the wedding was to be the first. A small thing, after all.

She told Ken when he came that evening. "We'll be married here, dearest. I've thought this over. It doesn't make any difference to me. And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts, rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority complex, big boy. I suppose a string orchestra will do, though it won't be quite as keen. Do you suppose Eve would wear something clever—make it a costume wedding, maybe? Black and orange, say."

"She would not," grunted Ken. "Forget it Elma. Or save it for your next venture."

"No enterprise at all," grumbled Elma. "And you could grab columns of publicity if you'd listen to reason."

"Don't want publicity, you idiot. And if you keep us all we'll sneak over to Greenwich and all you sensation-hounds can go to the devil."

Elma subsided after this but Eve looked forward with misgivings. She and Mary had made her dress, a girlish, simple thing of white chiffon and much as she loved it she could not help thinking of the ivory satin which would go back into the cedar chest. Still it was all right; since she was to marry Ken everything was all right. Only she hoped they would not turn the ceremony into theatricals.

And they did not; Ken saw to this. On the morning of the wedding day he drove to the Stewarts,

rejected. "This isn't musical comedy, you know."

"Don't parade an inferiority

COUNTY TO TARVIA LUM PARK ROAD THIS YEAR

Heavily Travelled Road to Receive Tarvia From Mill Street to Park

LET CONTRACT ON JUNE 7

Commissioners Also Vote to Retarvia Merrifield Road This Summer

Two important tarvia jobs were decided by the County Board of Commissioners in session at the court house today.

Presented by Commissioner Frank J. Lowe, the Board acted to tarvia that section of road leading from Mill street to Lum Park, bids to be returned on June 7 when the contract will be let.

The commissioners also voted to retarvia State Aid Road No. 3 a distance of eight miles from Third avenue N. E. to Merrifield.

Both paving jobs fill a distinctive need for Brainerd and Crow Wing county.

The Lum Park road has been heavily travelled for years and many complaints had been received of the dustiness of travel.

The Merrifield road was tarvied for the first time last year. The retarvia job will preserve and build up that original work.

Both jobs will be paid for out of county funds.

LOSERS TO ENTERTAIN

Winners in Rebekah Lodge Membership Contest to be Guests

On Monday evening, May 5, the members of the losing side in the recent contest for new members and attendance in the Florence Rebekah lodge, will entertain the winners after the regular lodge meeting. Mrs. John Thompson was the leader of the losing side and Mrs. Frank Fuller was leader for the winning side.

Cards and 50-50 will be the order of the evening together with a delicious lunch.

The contest for new members and attendance has proven a great success, and a large class of new members will be initiated the evening of May 19 at which time many Grand Lodge officers and members from other lodges in the vicinity will be present.

LORD DERBY IS TOUCHY ABOUT PRONOUNCING 'DERBY'

New York, May 3.—(UP)—Lord Derby, seventeenth Earl of the family which founded England's racing classic who arrived last night on the Aquitania, believes an injustice is being done his family name by the pronunciation of the word "Derby."

"You can call the race a derby if you jolly well please," Lord Derby said, "but my family, the godfather of the English derby from which all racing classics derive their name and I feel that the pronunciation 'Derby'—which is that of the family name—should be recognized as correct."

The 65-year-old peer, famous as a statesman, diplomat, and sportsman, is here as the guest of J. E. Widener to attend the Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs, May 17 and expects to have a "jolly, rollicking good time."

Plans have been made for Lord Derby to broadcast the Kentucky derby over an international radio hook-up, which will reach England, Europe and Australia.

PLANE TAGGED ON FRONT STREET FOR STOPPING TRAFFIC

Brainerd is growing up. Its first airplane episode came to the attention of local police today when Policeman August Swanson tagged a plane used in connection with "Young Eagles" at the Paramount theatre.

The plane was tagged after Wm. Meyers, Brainerd pilot, had taken the plane on the street near the theatre. Police were at a loss to know what to do about the ticket. Since the situation has not come up before and promises are that no more planes will stop traffic charges will be dropped.

Meyers told police that his intentions were to outlive Buddy Rogers who is appearing here in "Young Eagles" at the Paramount Sunday. The episode caused quite a flurry on Front street at noon and was all a bit of wholesome fun, the perpetrator being Geo. D. Irwin, incomparable publicity artist for Publix.

WILLIAM GRAHAM COMPANY FORMED

Incorporated to do Real Estate Business With Capital Stock of $125,000

Incorporation papers have been filed of the William Graham Company whose business shall be dealing in real estate and personal property.

The incorporators are William Graham, his sister, Josephine Graham and uncle, Luke O'Neill.

The company will have a capital stock of $125,000 and will conduct its business from Brainerd.

ELKS, ODD FELLOWS TO HONOR ALLISON

Funeral Rites for Lodge Member to be Held Monday From Elks Temple

Elks and Odd Fellows will join in honoring a fellow lodge member and long time Brainerd resident, Fred Allison, who died here yesterday in funeral rites to be conducted Monday at 2 p. m. at the Elks' Temple.

The Elks lodge will exemplify the ritual at the hall while the Odd Fellows will conduct the service at Evergreen cemetery where interment will take place.

Rev. F. A. Kufus pastor of the First Methodist church will assist in the services.

The body will lie in state at the Elks' Temple from 10 a. m. Monday to the time of the funeral. Mr. Allison is a Past Exalted Ruler of the Brainerd lodge of Elks and Past Noble Grand of the Odd Fellows.

Dog Bites Boy in Face

Paul, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson, Merrifield, was rushed to Brainerd for medical attention last evening after a water spaniel dog had bit him through the lip and under the chin.

The condition of the boy is reported as not serious.

Who's Who and What's What at the Lincoln

Many parents visited our school this week, especially on Wednesday. However, not all we hoped to see came. Much interest has been shown in the Safety First contest. Those taking the first prize, and their poems, are as follows: Marion Minske, primary, took first prize on second floor. If you throw stones, You'll break my bones.

If you play in the street You'll be wearing flowers at your feet. On the third floor Flora Herrmann took first. Do not catch on trolley cars Look for the cars at first You'll get hurt, then have to pay That would be the worst.

Do not catch on trolley cars Or walk the railroad crossing Do not play on railroad bars Sidewalks are for walking. Jessie Theodora Noggle, 1st and 2nd grade had the following. Do not play with telephone wire Or you might catch your clothes on fire.

Robert Kimball, B 3rd and Gene Bierhaus B 4th were also awarded first prizes. Harold Rodman took second for the upper floor and Dora Kraklau 2nd for the second floor. Others receiving honorable mention were Helen Lucas A 7th; Donald Bryan A 7th; Mardelle Thoe for B 3rd, and Jean Hagberg.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and aid during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Maude Russell. Also to express our appreciation for the beautiful floral offerings sent. Itp The Russell Children.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted by and for Oscar A. Gravdahl, Pequot, Minn., for which $1.50 has been paid.

OSCAR A. GRAVD AHL

Independent Candidate for

SHERIFF

Crow Wing County

Resident of Pequot for 7 Years

Will call on Brainerd friends all next week

A Square Deal for All

CHORAL, PIANO RECITAL MONDAY

To be Given Under Direction of Miss Effie Drexler and Mrs. W. A. M. Johnston

The program for the choral and piano recital to be given Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Elks hall under direction of Miss Effie Drexler and Mrs. W. A. M. Johnston, with Mrs. Louis Knudsen accompanist, follows:

Salutation	Gains
Gypsy Life	Schumann
Traumerei
Hunting Song
On Music's Wing	Mendelssohn
Ride of the Elves

Concert Etude in D Flat	Liszt
Etude, Op. 10, No. 12	Chopin
(Revolutionary)

La Serenata	Tosti
A Banjo Song	Homer
Flower of Dreams	Clokey

Concerto, First Movement	Arensky
Bernice Elaine LeMire

Orchestral Accompaniment Played on Second Piano by Edythe Brandt

INTERMISSION

By the Waters of Minnetonka	Lieurance
Venetian Love Song	Ethelbert Nevin

Violin Obligato—
Georgia Drexler
Geraldine Kiebler

Etude, Op. 25, No. 1
(Aeolian Harp)
Etude, Op. 10, No. 5
(Black Key)
Etude, Op. 25, No. 9	Chopin
(Butterfly)

Intermezzo in Octaves, Op. 44, No. 4	Leschetizky
Bernice LeMire

Come to the Fair	Martin
The Night Has a Thousand Eyes	Rogers
Allah's Holiday	Friml
Children of the Moon	Warren

Concerto, Op. 40	Chaminade
Edythe Brandt

Orchestral Accompaniment Played on Second Piano by Bernice LeMire

SIX CYLINDER SENTENCES

By DR. JOHN W. HOLLAND

Chase bubbles and you will find troubles.

Many people do not trouble the Lord until they land in trouble.

The street-car rider who believes in fair play will pay his fare.

Bring your child up right, and the chances are good that he will go right up.

A man whose character is solvent will be able at last to solve life's problems.

The need of the hour is not more olden creeds, but more golden deeds.

(© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

German Language

Modern German is derived from the various dialects of the West Germanic tribes. In some ways it resembles most the dialects of Middle German, spoken in Thuringia, Silesia, Upper Saxony, Franconia, etc., while in other ways it resembles the Upper German of Bavaria, Austria, etc.

Trees on Canadian Prairies

The Canadian prairies once were treeless. Now, however, most farm homes have groves and shade trees. The government has fostered the planting of trees and now there are well over 100,000,000 trees on prairie farms.

LINDBERGH TAKES OFF FOR NEW YORK

Miami, Fla., May 3.—(UP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh took off from the Pan-American airport at 6:38 a. m. today resuming the new mail service from Buenos Aires to New York.

With Co-pilot Basil Rowe and Radio Operator Bert Denicke, Lindbergh landed at Pan-American airport at 5:03 p. m. yesterday, 11 hours out of Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, where they spent the previous night. The Sikorsky amphibian plane was only three minutes late in reaching United States soil.

Lindbergh, a director of the Pan-American Airways which opened the new mail route, was pleased with the success of the service, which gives weekly service day air mail service between New York and Buenos Aires.

Miss Maude Coyne, Sister of William Coyne, Loses Life in a Car Accident

NEAR DULUTH ON THURSDAY

Sedan in Which She and Girl Friend Were Riding Overturned on Miller Trunk Highway

Miss Maude Coyne, 28, of Hibbing, sister of William Coyne of Brainerd, was killed in an auto accident near Duluth Thursday evening. Her girl friend, Miss Ruth Normand, 27, of Two Harbors, met death with Miss Coyne when the sedan in which they were riding overturned on the Miller trunk highway near the Pike Lake flying field.

Mr. Coyne, speaking of the accident, believes the four wheel brakes of the car may have locked, causing it to overturn four times. The bodies of Miss Coyne and Miss Normand have been removed to their respective homes in Hibbing and Two Harbors.

Miss Coyne is survived by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Coyne of Hibbing; four sisters, Mrs. Joe Healy of Hibbing, Mrs. Marion Douglas and Mrs. Elmer Lindsey of Duluth, and Ethel Coyne of Detroit; and a brother, William, of Brainerd. Miss Coyne was employed by the Sapiro Style shop of Hibbing for eight years.

Miss Normand is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryan; two brothers, Fritz and Oscar Lundberg; three sisters, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Dorothy Lundberg and Jean Ryan, all of Two Harbors. Miss Normand was employed by the Hepworth Insurance Agency of Hibbing for the past five years.

AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Edgar A. Valiant's Sunday Evening Topic Will be "A Regular Boy"

Mrs. Ray Hall and Miss Dorothy Schrader will be the guest soloists at the First Baptist church tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock, with Mrs. Hall rendering the vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Effie Wareing. Miss Schrader will play trombone solos, with Miss Laura Becker at the piano.

In observance of Boy Scout Sunday the Rev. Edgar A. Valiant will preach on the subject "A Regular Boy," at the above service.

Holy communion will be administered at the morning worship period at 11 o'clock, when the hand of fellowship will be extended to a number of new members. The fourth table-talk in the series on "The Four R's of the Lord's Table" will be given by Mr. Valiant, on "Revelation."

PRINCE OF WALES VISITS HIS PARENTS

London, May 3.—(UP)—The Prince of Wales, accompanied by a pilot, flew to Windsor Castle yesterday and visited his parents. It was the first time in history an heir to the throne had visited the king and queen at Windsor by air. King George and Queen Mary watched from the castle as the airplane circled and made a good landing on the golf links near the terrace.

Earth's Gravitational Pull

The Naval observatory says that there is no limit to the distance to which the earth's gravitational pull extends, but its amount decreases in proportion to the square of the distance from the earth's center. At the distance of the moon it is about 1-3000 what it is at the earth's surface.

Early Airplane Flight

The Pan-American airplane flight was the first one made from the United States to Nicaragua. The flyers left the United States December 21, 1926, and returned April 23, 1927.

KEYS made of all kinds; LAWN MOWERS sharpened and repaired, hand and power; SAW FILING of any kind; knives and tools sharpened.

KEY AND SAW FILING SHOP

421 So. Seventh St.

BRAINERD MAN'S SISTER KILLED

Miss Maude Coyne, Sister of William Coyne, Loses Life in a Car Accident

NEAR DULUTH ON THURSDAY

Sedan in Which She and Girl Friend Were Riding Overturned on Miller Trunk Highway

Miss Maude Coyne, 28, of Hibbing, sister of William Coyne of Brainerd, was killed in an auto accident near Duluth Thursday evening. Her girl friend, Miss Ruth Normand, 27, of Two Harbors, met death with Miss Coyne when the sedan in which they were riding overturned on the Miller trunk highway near the Pike Lake flying field.

Mr. Coyne, speaking of the accident, believes the four wheel brakes of the car may have locked, causing it to overturn four times. The bodies of Miss Coyne and Miss Normand have been removed to their respective homes in Hibbing and Two Harbors.

Miss Coyne is survived by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Coyne of Hibbing; four sisters, Mrs. Joe Healy of Hibbing, Mrs. Marion Douglas and Mrs. Elmer Lindsey of Duluth, and Ethel Coyne of Detroit; and a brother, William, of Brainerd. Miss Coyne was employed by the Sapiro Style shop of Hibbing for eight years.

Miss Normand is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryan; two brothers, Fritz and Oscar Lundberg; three sisters, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Dorothy Lundberg and Jean Ryan, all of Two Harbors. Miss Normand was employed by the Hepworth Insurance Agency of Hibbing for the past five years.

At First Baptist Church

Rev. Edgar A. Valiant's Sunday Evening Topic Will be "A Regular Boy"

Mrs. Ray Hall and Miss Dorothy Schrader will be the guest soloists at the First Baptist church tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock, with Mrs. Hall rendering the vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Effie Wareing. Miss Schrader will play trombone solos, with Miss Laura Becker at the piano.

In observance of Boy Scout Sunday the Rev. Edgar A. Valiant will preach on the subject "A Regular Boy," at the above service.

Holy communion will be administered at the morning worship period at 11 o'clock, when the hand of fellowship will be extended to a number of new members. The fourth table-talk in the series on "The Four R's of the Lord's Table" will be given by Mr. Valiant, on "Revelation."

Earth's Gravitational Pull

The Naval observatory says that there is no limit to the distance to which the earth's gravitational pull extends, but its amount decreases in proportion to the square of the distance from the earth's center. At the distance of the moon it is about 1-3000 what it is at the earth's surface.

Early Airplane Flight

The Pan-American airplane flight was the first one made from the United States to Nicaragua. The flyers left the United States December 21, 1926, and returned April 23, 1927.

KEYS made of all kinds; LAWN MOWERS sharpened and repaired, hand and power; SAW FILING of any kind; knives and tools sharpened.

KEY AND SAW FILING SHOP

421 So. Seventh St.

HIGH COURT RULING ON AUTO LICENSES

St. Paul, Minn., May 2.—(UP)—For a second time, the Minnesota supreme court today ruled that the state cannot levy automobile license fees against concerns paying gross earnings taxes.

The decision ruled that the 1929 amendment to the gross earnings tax law was unconstitutional. The ruling prevents collection by the state of about $16,000 annually collected on vehicles owned by public utilities and other concerns paying gross earnings taxes.

DAGGETT BROOK

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Shannon were in Brainerd last Wednesday.

The farmers all appreciated the recent rains as it helps the grass to grow in the pastures and the crops in general.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilderbrand and Mr. James were in Brainerd one day this week.

Mrs. Clarence Engelhart was a Brainerd visitor one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton and Kenneth visited their son Ray who is being cared for at the Sherlund home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ringering and family have moved on the old Freeman place. We are glad to welcome them to our neighborhood.

Mrs. Louis Ringering and the new baby have come home from Brainerd where they were for a couple of weeks.

TO GIVE PAPER ON INDIA SITUATION

Mrs. W. C. Cobb to Discuss Gandhi at World Service Society Meet

The World Service society of the First Congregational church will meet on Monday, May 5. All who can are urged to attend the luncheon at 1 o'clock. A period of sewing will follow and at 3 o'clock, Mrs. W. C. Cobb will give a paper on "Gandhi and the Critical Situation in India." Much can be read on this subject but Mrs. Cobb will give in a most thorough manner, a clear presentation of the many sides to Great Britain's delicate situation.

These papers on various phases of India have been most ably handled. Last month Miss Aletha Herwig of the high school faculty gave the past history of India.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. A. C. Weber, Mrs. V. E. Schodin, Mrs. C. O. Harholdt and Mrs. G. S. Swanson.

For Sale Wood

Seasoned Jack Pine cord wood $7 cord. 12 and 16 inch dry seasoned wood, load. $4.50

Call 595 or 281

Mrs. A. Gustafson

Misgivings

When you are far from home, are you free from concern about important papers, treasured letters and keepsakes, valuables and securities?

Banish the insecurity which causes such misgivings.

Rent a Safe Deposit Box and put your prized possessions under the protection of the thick walls and massive door of our Safe Deposit Vault.

This protection is available at the cost of a few cents a month.

CITIZENS STATE BANK of Brainerd

"Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing County"

Don't Stub Your Toe!

One dark night—so the story goes—a certain monarch placed a large boulder in the middle of the road. Thousands of his people, thereafter, severely stubbed their toes or troubled to walk around. At length, one lusty youth—wiser than the rest—seized the stone and heaved it from his path. And where it had rested, he found a bag of gold.

Are you stubbing your toe? Are you overlooking any bags of gold? How about the advertising in this paper? Do you read it—consistently? It is a bag of gold to many of our readers.

In our columns you will find the advertisements of alert, progressive merchants and manufacturers who seek to tell you something they think you ought to know. This advertising is news about the very things that interest you most—articles that will save you money, lessen your work, or add materially to your comfort and well-being.

Thrifty men and women read advertising. To them it is a plain, every-day business proposition—a duty they owe themselves and their purses. It tells them where they can buy exactly what they want at a price they can afford to pay.

Advertising pays them. They make it pay.

It will pay you too. Read it

$2 a Month

Insures Your Income Against Every

SICKNESS AND

ACCIDENT

(Of Every Description)

Every Accident for 5 Years

Every Illness for 6 Months

Surgeon's Fees, $10; Operation Fees, $35; Hospital Benefits, 50% Additional

Monthly Benefits, $50 to $180

Classified According to Occupation

Men and Women Employed

No Medical Examination

Claims Paid Exceed $70,000,000.00

Assets, $22,450,197.08

Agents Wanted for Unoccupied Territory. Call, Write or Phone

MeL 509.

MAIL THIS COUPON TODAY

Name _____

Address _____

General Accident F. & L. Assur. Corp</

